EDITOR'S NOTE

Enough already!

Just think, this time last year, we'd wrapped up the first couple of months of 2020 and were full steam ahead into the next — completely unaware of what March would bring and how life would change because of one little (albeit all-capped) word: COVID. On the one-year anniversary of this global pandemic — the first in my lifetime and, hopefully, the last — I'm having lots of "feels" ... bruised but not broken, claustrophobic but still comfortable, frustrated yet fortunate. I recognize those are conflicting adjectives, but doesn't that sum up life through coronavirus? An unexpected calm wrapped up in layers of confusion!

So, how do we face the start of year two with no clear pand-END-mic in sight? Do we just accept that masks are officially part of our new wardrobe and mourn the loss of hugs forever? Honestly, I've had enough of this mess. Enough of the uncertainty and fear. Enough of the politics. Enough of the division.

The flip side, I've found, is an awareness of how incredibly blessed I am to have had enough of everything I needed. Enough food. Enough shelter. Enough work to pay the bills. Enough laughter. Enough joy. And goodness knows we've all had more than enough time on our over-washed hands!

There are certainly those not as blessed, even during "normal" times — a fact I sometimes lose sight of. There is still struggle ahead, but if the last year has taught me anything, it's that having just enough is more than enough. May that awareness be my new normal!

Enough said.

— By Angel Morris

A life of steadfast service has made Dr. Martin Hawkins particularly suited for a challenge placed before him. The president of Southern Bible Institute & College is poised to prove that "slow and steady wins the race" is not just a mantra, but a mission. "To celebrate the college's 95th anniversary, a challenge was given to two of our senior members. Through The Tortoise and the Hare Fundraiser, we will see who has raised the most support and covered the most territory," 79-year-old Martin explained.

A dedicated walker who has tracked steps for years, Martin joined SBIC Board Member Al Angel, an 81-year-old who completes a yearly marathon, in competing for the most miles. On March 13, the school will commemorate its anniversary and recognize Martin's goal of reaching 3 million steps. While he aspired to raise $60,000 for the school, The Tortoise and the Hare race perhaps had a greater purpose: inspiring fitness among seniors. "Our mental, emotional and physical capacities have changed over the years. Sometimes these realities can be discouraging, but we still have to move through these obstacles," Martin reminded.

One such obstacle for Martin was a diagnosis of diabetes several years ago. "Health issues can be challenging, but we have choices in how we can respond." He recalled, "My daughter gave me a Fitbit for my birthday, which changed everything. Walking was something that I could do at anytime and anyplace. Thus, my walking became my solution."

As his passion for walking increased, health issues also began to decrease. "It is about an attitude of never giving up, acknowledging the role of Christ in our lives and, no matter how old you are, continuing to strive to reach your goals."

Martin had already developed an attitude of perseverance. "I graduated from high school, unable to get accepted in college because my grades just weren't sufficient. The dream was deferred but not forgotten. I worked and waited five years before I was able to enter college," Martin recalled. "However, once I started, I stayed in college for the next 20 years."

Martin first received his associate degree, then a bachelor's from Rutgers University and a master's in counseling from Rowan College in New Jersey. In 1980, he received a Master of Theology Degree from Dallas Theological Seminary and later completed a Doctorate of Ministry program from there. "I advise others to assess their dreams, determine which are recurring and then pursue those with passion," Martin outlined. "Don't give up even though the dream may seem insurmountable. Take one day at a time and ignore the frustrations!"

"Walkin Hawkins"

Upon receiving his master's, Martin became the assistant pastor at Oak Cliff Bible Fellowship under Dr. Tony Evans. "I have been inspired by my pastor of 44 years. He enabled me to see how the Word is demonstrated in the everyday lives of people," Martin credited. "He helped me develop in my personal life, in my family life, in my relations with my wife and children and others. He constantly encouraged me to seek the highest academically and to pursue excellence in my faith. We partnered for 30 years in the development of OCBF, and I'm grateful for his leadership."

After 29 years at OCBF, Martin assumed the SBIC presidency in 2005, where he still serves. In August, he passes the torch to Dr. Terrance Ford who will take the school through accreditation completion as well as an aggressive plan for enrollment and campus expansion. "We have dubbed this transition process the Jordan River Project, reflecting on Moses and Joshua. This year will be dedicated to several legacy campaigns, of which The Tortoise and Hare Fundraiser is just one."

The fundraiser is also a personal tribute to Martin's own father. "We had a family with 16 children of which I was the youngest, and we were not wealthy. But my father was a godly man and provided for our family in the best way that he could," Martin remembered. "At 75 years of age, my father walked 3 miles to and from work each day." This was additional motivation for Martin as he reflected on his father's life. "He was physically fit even in his senior years. He depended on the Lord to provide all that our family needed. He taught all of us to do the same, and his influence has been evident throughout my life."

It was 2003 when Martin and his wife, Shirley, decided to move from Dallas to a smaller city. "At that point, Midlothian was the perfect place — a small, country town with lots of space to grow. So, Midlothian became our home," he explained.

Now an avid Cowboys, Mavs and Rangers fan, Martin admits to loving "almost all kinds of sports. Lately, I have become interested in the game of corn hole. This is a great retirement game, and I am going to become an expert."

Martin encourages other seniors to find something they love, to establish a daily routine of exercise, to partner with friends and family to get physically fit and not to be discouraged when everything doesn't go as planned. "Never, never, never quit!" he reiterated.

Father to son, Mark (and daughter-inlaw Rosalind), and daughter, Melissa, and grandfather to Maya and Marina, Martin remains dedicated to staying physically and mentally fit beyond The Tortoise and the Hare Fundraiser and throughout retirement. He hopes his story can encourage others to do the same.

"My challenge was underestimating my abilities. Once I understood who I was from a godly perspective, it allowed me to see my life differently. I realized God gave me gifts and abilities that are specifically intended for me," he said. "This motivated me to pursue college, a career and remain active. It helped me realize I was given the gift of discipleship, leadership and encouragement. I have utilized those gifts to benefit me, but more importantly to help others to reach their potential." NOW

Hours: Monday-Tuesday, Thursday-Friday: 9:00 a.m.-5:00 p.m. (New days and hours coming this year.) Closed for lunch: 1:00-2:00 p.m.

Bringing her Ohio charm to Texas, Dr. Monica Sheibley fit in with the Ellis County vibe when she moved here. "I fell in love with Midlothian and its amazing sense of community," she said. "It reminds me of my hometown in Ohio."

Formerly the office of Dr. Gerald Clark, DDS, the practice changed hands in April 2020. "After 37 years of dentistry, Dr.

Clark was nearing retirement and looking to pass the torch. I'm grateful for the opportunity to carry on the dental legacy at my location," Dr. Sheibley explained.

Born and raised in Bucyrus, Ohio, Dr. Sheibley earned her bachelor's degree from Muskingum University. Relocating to DFW shortly thereafter, she continued her education at The University of Texas at Dallas, earning her certificate of biomedical science before entering dental school at Texas A&M College of Dentistry in Dallas (formerly Baylor College of Dentistry).

A general dentistry practice, providing dental care to all ages, the office services include general, cosmetic and pediatric dentistry, crowns, implants, extractions, emergency and preventive care, root canals, clear aligners for orthodontics, wisdom teeth removal and more.

"There are two things I love about being in dentistry," Dr. Sheibley explained. "I love both the personal and professional relationships I get to develop with patients, colleagues and team members. Second, I love seeing someone have a life-changing moment when they have a new smile or can finally feel comfortable smiling, after not being able to for so long."

Dr. Sheibley believes continuing education is important to staying on top of the latest techniques and advancements in the dental field and is an active member of the American Dental Association, Texas Dental Association and Academy of General Dentistry. She feels lucky that she has found a profession that allows her to help those in need. "We strive to meet and learn about our patients on a more personal level before beginning treatment, and work to create a comfortable and relaxing environment."

Nestled on the Southwest corner of Main and 7th streets, the dental office is in a renovated historic home, which Dr. Sheibley hopes makes patients feel welcome. Her team helps achieve this goal by "listening to those we are privileged to serve, earning the trust and respect of patients and exceeding their expectations."

The team continues to keep in mind the comfort of the patients, as Dr. Sheibley plans to expand hours and days in 2021 to accommodate patients who have school and work. Sheibley team members tailor appointments to each patient, giving options with the understanding that what works for one person may not work for another. "I believe in treating every patient like family, working with patients of all ages and building long-term relationships in order for each patient to achieve their oral health goals," Dr. Sheibley promised.

Outside the office, Dr. Sheibley stays active running, cycling, swimming and participating in races/triathlons including marathons, half marathons and Ironman events — even qualifying for the Ironman 70.3 World Championships in New Zealand.

With husband, Aaron, Dr. Sheibley has five dogs, loves to travel, spend time with family and friends and try new restaurants. They are involved in dog foster/rescue and enjoy spending time outdoors and seeking new adventures.

Zoomed In: Austin Wargin

By Angel Morris

A member of Midlothian Bible Church for seven years, Austin Wargin is no stranger to volunteerism. His most recent efforts were with North Texas Food Bank from the MBC parking lot. "There were about 30 volunteers. My favorite aspect was being able to provide extra food for the families that drove through the pickup line," Austin said.

A senior at Texas Tech University studying industrial engineering, the 21-year-old has also volunteered doing yard work, removing holiday decor and running slides for worship services. "Midlothian Bible is a great church and full of loving people," Austin said. "This is the first time I have worked with NTFB, but I plan on coming back to help again."

When Charli Turturro was 8, she started Charli's Chocolate Factory, a baking business. Claire Flach, 13, who loved baking with her grandma, moved to Charli's neighborhood in 2018. "We enjoy cooking down-home meals and baking. One time, we put some cakes in the oven, and about 5 minutes later, we smelled something burning," Charli recalled. "We looked in the oven, and the cakes were black. We took them out of the oven and scraped the top layer off and used the leftover batter. The cakes were delish!"

Other than baking, the girls love video games and dancing. "When we have the time, we like to go to Dillard's and try on weird outfits," Claire admitted. Now

HealthNOW Don't Delay! Ankle Fractures

Foot and ankle injuries can occur in all kinds of scenarios — from playing sports, to being in an accident, to simply tripping on something and falling down. One of the most concerning fractures for many are those that happen in the ankle.

Fractures in the ankle can differ in severity. The least severe breaks are called avulsion fractures, in which a small piece of bone has been pulled off. The most severe ankle fractures are shattering-type breaks in the tibia or fibula, the two bones extending from the knee to the ankle.

Most ankle fractures happen when the ankle has rolled either inward or outward. Any number of mishaps can cause an ankle fracture, such as slipping and falling, stepping off a curb the wrong way, being in a motorcycle or car accident or having an incident in sports.

The typical symptoms of a fractured ankle are severe pain and significant swelling. You may or may not be able to bear weight on the affected foot. One myth about fractures is that you will hear a crack or a pop. This is simply not true — no noise is heard with a broken bone. Some people think they have an ankle sprain, when in actuality, they have an ankle fracture — or in some cases they may have both. It's important to seek emergency medical care right away.

When you go to the emergency room, make sure that X-rays are taken to determine whether you have a fracture. It's also important that you receive a follow-up referral to a foot and ankle surgeon, who will evaluate your ankle thoroughly and discuss your treatment. Sometimes, additional imaging tests are needed. If your bone is broken in two or more places, you will likely need surgery. If your bone is broken in one area only, you may or may not need surgery, depending on the severity of your injury. Many ankle fractures are placed in a cast or a removable CAM boot to keep the bone immobile while it heals. Typically, the cast is worn for two months with some of that time being kept non-weight bearing, either with crutches or a rolling scooter. At that time, you may or may not need physical therapy. Although these fractures can be scary, with proper follow up and care, you can overcome them. NOW
