Happy April!

Spring is in the air! To me, spring is a time of rebirth and new beginnings. From the first sprouts of green grass breaking through the earth to the baby birds and bunnies making themselves known to the world, spring offers an introduction to creation. It is the time to start something new — to create.

As time moves on, more quickly these days, it is important to recognize what life has to offer. Take a moment to look around and notice all of the “new beginnings” right in front of us. Maybe it is a baby’s first word or first steps, the decision to attend a certain college in the fall, the “I do” to a life with a significant other or a life change that will lead to the greater unknown — these are all times in our lives where much more lies ahead for us, more than we might ever imagine is possible.

I often reflect on the choices I have made and the experiences that have presented themselves throughout my life, and how each led me to where I am today. With God’s guidance and the determination to learn and grow, I am exactly where I should be at this moment in time and am forever grateful.

This spring, why not choose to do something you have never done before? You could plant a vegetable garden. You could take your first walk on The Boardwalk at Lake Weatherford. You might try a local restaurant or attend your first city council meeting. Whatever you choose, it could be the beginning of something great.

Enjoy yourselves!

Trail on the Water

— By Amber D. Browne

The quacks from a family of ducks floating along the calm lake. The croak of a frog resting in the sun on a water lily. The sound of the wind whirling through the trees. The sight of a bald eagle soaring above. These are just a few experiences you may have while strolling along the country's longest floating boardwalk, right here in Weatherford.

The Boardwalk at Lake Weatherford first opened three years ago this month, adding an unforgettable adventure at the local lake for area residents and visitors to enjoy. "The boardwalk creates a unique opportunity for residents and visitors to experience the ecosystem of Lake Weatherford that would be unapproachable without the boardwalk," said Jaycob Kirkpatrick, director of parks, recreation and special events for the city of Weatherford. "Our goal is to create an educational and passive recreation experience that is beneficial through exercise and observing nature in a wetland-like environment."

Jaycob has been with the Parks, Recreation and Special Events Department for the past five years and worked on the boardwalk project. "I always tell people it's something that you're not going to find anywhere else that you go. You can go to any city, and they have their parks and their lakes, but you're not going to find anything like this. So, it's very unique. It brings people to Lake Weatherford. It brings people to Weatherford. They're coming because it's a destination."

The idea for the boardwalk started back in 2017. It took about two years to fund and design the project. "Once we had the funding approved, we were able to roll right into the design."

The project was funded through lake lot development fees. Each home owner on Lake Weatherford pays lake lot fees, which then go toward upgrades to local parks. Jaycob said the boardwalk project had a lot of support. "It really cleaned up that side of the lake. There was just nothing there. It was a part of the lake that we weren't able to get in, and now, we can actually access it and use it for a wildlife area and different things." Because of the boardwalk development funding, all of the area parks were cleaned up, and piers, sidewalk trails and pavilions were also added.

The Parks and Recreation Department toured multiple boardwalks across the state to get ideas for the Lake Weatherford design, which was developed in-house. Many of the docks across the state are permanent structures and flood in rising waters. Because of the constant fluctuation in the water level at Lake Weatherford, a permanent structure was not feasible. The floating boardwalk was the best option.

"We did all of the design work and concepts, and then we hired EZ Dock to install the floating boardwalk." The boardwalk provides access to guests year-round, regardless of flooding or drought. "It moves up and down based on the water level," Jaycob said. "We can access the boardwalk at any time, no matter what the water level is." Two years ago when the lake was full, the boardwalk was 95 percent floating. Water levels vary with the seasons, but even without water, the hike is full of foliage, beautiful trees and a diverse range of wildlife.

The trail allows many different perspectives of the lake and what it has to offer. Most boardwalk visitors enjoy bird-watching activities, but many have seen other wildlife, such as deer, pigs and snakes. “You never know what you’re going to see,” Jaycob said.

The Boardwalk at Lake Weatherford connects East Lake Drive to West Lake Drive across the water. There are two access points — one on the north side of the lake, which is the treed portion of the boardwalk, and the other on the south side. Each access point includes a parking lot.

“It’s a loop,” Jaycob said. “If you start at one end, and you walk it and walk all the way back, it’s actually 6,234 feet, which is 1.18 miles. It makes it the longest floating boardwalk in the United States.” The entire boardwalk is ADA accessible and flat, which makes it easily walkable.

No repairs have been needed since the boardwalk opened to the public in April 2020, but maintenance is still required. The brush must be trimmed, especially during the growing seasons, and spiderwebs removed.

The traffic on the boardwalk is not measured, but the floating trail is heavily visited. “We always hear people who live out there tell us that there are a lot of people out on the trails.”

Eventually, the city would like to add a permanent restroom, but because of major flooding near the lake, there are many restrictions on what can be constructed. They would also like to add a fishing pier and kayak launch at The Wall, and future plans are in store for the beachfront area and the lake’s disc golf course.

The Boardwalk at Lake Weatherford is open daily from 6:00 a.m.-10:00 p.m. Visitors can bird-watch, catch up on a good book while resting on one of the benches along the trail, fish, have a picnic or simply enjoy the view. “It’s a very unique spot.” NOW

TALES OF TEXAS ROCK SOLID EVIDENCE

— By Bill Smith

Courtesy of Rockwall County Historical Foundation.

“Geologist Richard Burleson forms the opinion that they are ‘igneous occurrences.’ Archeologist Vount Byron de Prorok ... concludes they were constructed by a prehistoric race. Dr. R.S. Hyer, former professor of physics at SMU, concludes the formation is natural. Dr. Kenneth Schaar of The University of Texas at Arlington concluded that both sections he examined were natural formations but does not rule out the possibility that another portion could be manmade.” These are just a few of the conclusions of men, quoted on the Rockwall County Museum website, who have examined the curious wall that meanders through a portion of North Texas. Even with all of this evidence, the jury is still out. Is the wall that gave Rockwall County its name a natural formation or manmade?

Texas has 254 counties. There is a simple answer to the question, “Why?” It is because Texas is just so big! In the early days of the state, Texas followed a simple guideline that no one should be more than a day’s travel from their courthouse. Travel was mostly on horseback, so the counties had to be relatively small. Rockwall County leads the way as the smallest county. The Constitution of 1876 said new counties had to be at least 900 square miles. Rockwall County was in an area that was part of Nacogdoches County in 1836, and by the time Texas joined the United States in 1845, it was part of Henderson County. Kaufman County was formed in 1847, and the Rockwall area was included therein until 1873, when the residents felt the county seat of Kaufman was just too far away. And in 1873, Rockwall County was formed. Since it was formed before the 1876 Constitution, the diminutive county was able to organize with just 147 square miles.

Today’s Rockwall County Courthouse is a magnificent edifice, constructed in 2011, and features terrazzo floors, granite wall paneling and mahogany ceiling paneling. It is a far cry from the original structure built in 1875 and the subsequent structures completed in 1892 and 1940. While the first two structures no longer exist due to fire and safety issues, the 1940 courthouse is still in use today by the county commissioners and tax office.

One Republic of Texas action that helped with the establishment of the city of Rockwall and of Rockwall County was the construction of the Central National Road. According to the Texas State Historical Association, in 1844, the Texas Congress “established a five-man commission to select a right-of-way, see that it was cleared and supervise the building of necessary bridges.” The road would run from the Trinity River in the Dallas area crossing Rockwall County near Rockwall, then farther north and east to the extreme northwest corner of Red River County. The foresight of Congress was great and was, in fact, an “international” vision. “At its southern terminus, it connected with the road opened in 1840 between Austin and Preston Bend on the Red River, in effect making an international highway between St. Louis and San Antonio.” Population shifts kept the highway from meeting its full international potential, and the later development of new towns decreased the importance of the Central National Road.

It was sometime in the early 1850s that farmers digging a well discovered a rock wall that crossed the future county and, at some places, appeared at ground level. When the town of Rockwall was formed, it was named after the rock formation, and subsequently, of course, the county took the name also. As recently as 1976, part of the wall was excavated near present-day FM 549 and Cornelius Road. The excavation was open to the public, and hundreds of school children visited the wall. In 1996, Architect John Lindsey concluded that “evidence of a prehistoric structure is mounting.” Then in 2012, the America Unearthed program, “The Great Wall of Texas,” concluded it was a natural formation.

Today, the walls in situ are buried and closed to the public on private property. However, pieces of the walls have been moved and reconstructed at Rockwall County Museum Park, and a small segment of the wall is visible at the old Rockwall County Courthouse. Texashillcountry.com titles its blog about the wall, “The Rock ‘Wall’ in Rockwall, Texas: Prehistoric Man, Extra-Terrestrial, or Natural Phenomenon?” Regardless of its origin, the wall makes a nice foundation for the city of Rockwall and Rockwall County. NOW

Zoomed In: Miranda Stiles and Daughters

By Amber D. Browne

Spring is the perfect season to enjoy a sunny Sunday afternoon at Lake Weatherford. Miranda Stiles and her daughters, Amelia and Avery Sepulveda, have been visiting the lake for a few years. "Today was a beautiful sunny day, and we figured we'd come out and enjoy the sun and try to catch some fish," Miranda said.

Although there was a mishap with one of the fishing reels, they were determined to catch a big one, possibly a bass. "It's just something to do outdoors, and it's nice and peaceful. If we don't catch the fish, at least we can enjoy the sun," Miranda said.

Car maintenance might often be easily overlooked, especially when there is no problem hindering the vehicle's performance. However, maintenance keeps vehicles running efficiently and decreases the potential for a problem to occur. If you need to catch up on a little maintenance or if a problem is causing issues with your vehicle, Kingway Automotive, which now has two locations to serve customers, might have the solution.

"It's almost easier to say what we don't do because we do just about everything," said Brandon Waters, owner of Kingway Automotive. "We've narrowed our focus down to '97 and up year models." Kingway Automotive does not do paint and body work, tires or diesel engine repair. Other automotive repairs, such as timing belts and other issues are in their wheelhouse. "Everything as far as engines, transmissions, brakes, steering, suspension, electrical, check engine light, etc."

Kingway Automotive does not offer state inspections, but if you need an oil change, they can help. "In the past, we really didn't offer come-and-go oil change service, but we've made some changes to give our customers a one-stop place to come. We just started that in Weatherford, and we will definitely be doing it in Aledo.”

Kingway Automotive first opened on Fort Worth Highway in Weatherford back in 2010 and opened a second location earlier this year on North FM 1187 in Aledo. The idea for a second shop materialized because they had more work than they could handle at the Weatherford location. “We actually had a lot of customers who were coming from Aledo,” Brandon shared. The new Aledo location was formerly R.E. Maintenance, which Brandon said was going through some transitions several years back. He reached out to the owner in December of 2021 in hopes of starting the process of opening a second shop.

Once he finally closed on the Aledo building and property, Brandon was excited but also terrified. “We had to remodel the building and do a lot of work to get it up to code.” All of the electrical at the Aledo location was rewired and the space remodeled. “It’s all fun and games until it becomes real, and now it’s real,” Brandon shared. “Now, it has to work.”

Brandon spends his time working between both the Weatherford and Aledo locations. “I do get emotionally involved in tickets and customers, and in the guys,” he shared. Kingway Automotive employs a total of about a dozen employees when both locations are fully staffed.

Brandon wants to build trust with Kingway Automotive customers. “I think the biggest thing is to be that place that a customer can trust and know that they weren’t lied to, they weren’t cheated, they weren’t sold something they didn’t need. And, at the same time, if something did go wrong, then they know that they can come to us and say, ‘I’m not sure that this went well,’ and we’ll make it right.”

The Kingway Automotive location at 922 Fort Worth Highway will continue serving customers in the Weatherford community and surrounding areas, and the Aledo spot is growing its clientele. “I have a second audience that I feel like I have to perform well for, which is true,” he said. “I want to do well. My foremost goal in business is to honor Christ in all we do.” NOW

A woman with long brown hair, wearing a white short-sleeved top and blue jeans, stands in a modern kitchen. She is smiling and holding a white plate with several golden-brown fried items. The kitchen has light-colored cabinets, a white countertop, and a stainless steel dishwasher. A small vase with pink flowers sits on the counter behind her.

CookingNOW In the Kitchen With SUMMER JONES

— By Bill Smith

Summer Jones said, “Cooking is a creative outlet. You start with ingredients and then get to create something out of it. It’s like bringing order out of disorder. The best part is experiencing your creation with all your senses.”

While a lot of people like to find recipes today on the internet, she admitted to being old-school. “I love cookbooks,” she continued. “Junior League cookbooks are my all-time favorite — they rarely disappoint. There is just something about flipping through a cookbook, looking for just the right recipe for the right occasion, that brings me joy.”

Summer has some special recipes that her family enjoys on special occasions. “Having traditions centered around food is part of what life is all about,” she said. NOW

Chicken Pasta With Sun-dried Tomatoes

1 tsp. extra-virgin olive oil
3 shallots, minced
1 8-oz. boneless, skinless chicken breast, cooked and julienned
4 oz. sun-dried tomatoes packed in oil, drained
1/2 cup heavy whipping cream

8 oz. penne pasta, cooked al dente
1/2 Tbsp. unsalted butter, melted
2 Tbsp. Parmesan cheese, freshly grated
3 Tbsp. fresh basil, chopped
1/2 tsp. salt

1. Heat the olive oil in a large skillet over medium heat.
2. Add the shallots; sauté 2 minutes, or until soft.
3. Add the chicken and tomatoes; cook for

2 minutes. Stir in cream; cook an additional 2 minutes, stirring occasionally.

4. Toss the sauce, pasta, butter, Parmesan, basil and salt in a large serving bowl. Serve immediately.

Loaded Crash Hots

6 small round yellow or red potatoes
3 Tbsp. olive oil, plus more for the masher
Kosher salt, to taste
Black pepper, to taste
1/3 cup cheddar cheese, grated
1/4 cup sour cream
2 slices thick-cut bacon, cooked and chopped
1 tsp. fresh chives, chopped

1. Preheat the oven to 475 F.
2. In a medium saucepan of boiling salted water, cook the potatoes until fork-tender, about 12 minutes.
3. Transfer the potatoes to a small sheet pan; brush a potato masher with some of the olive oil.

4. Press to flatten the potatoes halfway, then rotate the masher and flatten them more. Brush the masher with more of the oil as you go to prevent sticking.
5. Generously brush the tops of the potatoes with more olive oil; sprinkle with salt and pepper.
6. Transfer to the oven; bake until browned and crisp around the edges, about 15 minutes.
7. Top each potato with cheddar, sour cream and bacon. Finish with a sprinkling of chives.

Perfect Peanut Butter Cookies

3. Set up three shallow bowls. In the first, season 1/2 cup of the flour with salt and pepper. In the second, whisk the milk and egg together. In the third, place the panko.
4. Dredge the pork scallops in the seasoned flour, shaking off the excess.
5. Then quickly dunk the pork into the milk-egg mixture.
6. Then finally coat it in the panko.
7. In a large skillet, heat the oil and 4 Tbsp. of the butter over medium heat; add the pork scallops. Cook until golden and crisp, 2 to 2 1/2 minutes per side. Remove them to a plate lined with paper towels.

8. Add the remaining 2 Tbsp. butter and the capers to the skillet; whisk to scrape any browned bits from the bottom of the pan.
9. Sprinkle the remaining 2 Tbsp. flour into the skillet. Whisk and cook until the roux starts to turn deep golden, about 2 minutes.
10. Pour in the wine. Add the chicken broth. Whisk and cook until the sauce is smooth and thin, 3 to 4 minutes. Add the lemon juice.
11. Stir and taste the sauce. Adjust the seasonings as needed.
12. For serving: Arrange a bed of arugula on a platter.
13. Set the pork and lemon wedges over the arugula; top with Parmesan shavings and a sprinkle of parsley.
14. Pour on the sauce just before serving.

1. Mix together the cornmeal, flour, salt, baking powder and baking soda.
2. Stir in the remaining ingredients.
3. Pour into a greased 8x8-inch Pyrex or ceramic baking dish; bake at 425 F for 20 to 25 minutes.
4. Serve with room temperature butter.
