Everybody polka!

If you have ever been one to frequent the Czech fraternal halls in Ennis during May, you have heard the phrase exclaimed hundreds of times. The leader of the band steps up to the microphone, and the dance crowd anticipates whether the next tune will be a polka or a waltz, or perhaps a chair-emptying line dance like the “Cotton-Eyed Joe” or the familiar “Schottische.”

Vendors come from near and far to sell a variety of food items and souvenirs of the weekend in Ennis. Don't miss the klobase and kolaches! The bands likewise travel from all over the United States to play for a polka festival where part of the party is outdoors, and part of it takes place in the air-conditioned halls.

As a child, our home was close enough to downtown to walk to the parade, and my father made sure we never missed one of them. We had countless movies of the parade from an old Kodak camera that did not even require batteries. The camera had a key that folded out from the side that Dad just wound up. He loved getting pictures of the Ennis High School Band, as my sisters and brother marched in the parade. He also enjoyed the Shriners that come every year with their clowns, cycles and go-karts. The parade has grown significantly over its 53 years.

Some of our tourists were here just last month for the Bluebonnet Festival and Trails and could not resist a return trip to experience Ennis' hospitality. To all of you, we native Ennisites say Vitáme Vás! Welcome!

See you at the festival!

GOT KNEE PAIN?

ONE 30-MINUTE TREATMENT COULD END YOUR KNEE PAIN!

Have you ever wondered how different your life would be if you could significantly reduce your knee pain? Where would you go, what would you do? What if this therapy took ONLY ONE 30-MINUTE TREATMENT? We're pleased to announce that knee pain sufferers don't have to wait any longer to get one of the most advanced treatments available today. If you suffer from debilitating knee pain, we invite you to regain control of your life by visiting Complete Health Medical Center, a modern, holistic medical facility.

WHAT IS OSTEOARTHRITIS (OA)?

Osteoarthritis, also known as degenerative joint disease, is the most common type of arthritis. In Osteoarthritis, the surface layer of cartilage breaks down and wears away. This allows the bones under the cartilage to rub together resulting in pain, swelling and loss of motion of the joint. Although in some people it progresses quickly, in most individuals joint damage develops gradually over years.

HOW DOES THIS TREATMENT WORK?

Advanced live motion sonography allows us to pinpoint problem areas with extreme accuracy. We prepare and introduce regenerative tissues into your knee (or other affected joint) and the healing process begins. Stem cells are the building blocks of nearly any tissue type, i.e. are multipotent, and support soft tissue supplementation and possible regrowth! This treatment also quickly reduces pain, inflammation and swelling of the joint. Most patients describe the treatment as getting a shot at the doctor's office and report little pain or discomfort.

WHAT ACTUALLY IS A STEM CELL?

Stem cells (also called mesenchymal cells) have the exceptional ability to take on the behavior and characteristics of their surrounding cells. As such, following a stem cell knee repair procedure, the injected cells may become specialized for the knee and, over time, may help to regenerate the damaged cartilage and other tissue. Results will vary among patients, but many report experiencing pain relief in as little as one week. You have probably recently seen many professional athletes in the news using stem cells to regenerate their bodies following a sports injury (including Super Bowl champion Peyton Manning). Stem Cell Therapy for joint repair is used for acute and chronic injuries, knee meniscal tears, loss of knee joint cartilage and to stop the progression of degenerative arthritis.

WHEN WILL I FEEL RESULTS?

Most people feel better as quickly as one week and can begin enjoying everyday activities within a few days following the treatment. Healing and regeneration continue for several months afterwards, further recovering more function in the joint and supporting tissues.

IS IT AFFORDABLE?

Yes. Our clinic has made stem cell treatments affordable and within reach of most people. Imagine eliminating the need to wear a knee brace or the dependency on antiinflammatories or opioids.

WHO IS A GOOD CANDIDATE FOR THIS TREATMENT?

Do you wake up with knee pain? Does your knee pain keep you from certain activities? Have you been told you need a knee replacement? Are you active and sometimes suffer from sore knees? Do you take medications for knee pain? Do you have difficulty going up and down stairs due to knee pain? Are you considering surgery to alleviate knee pain? Have you tried everything to get rid of knee pain with no success? If you answered yes to any of these questions, you are ready to apply to see if you are an eligible patient candidate at Complete Health Medical Center.

HOW DO I KNOW THAT THIS IS RIGHT FOR ME?

In many cases, regenerative medicine is a solution for knee pain. Our medical staff will give you an honest and fair evaluation of your particular knee pain. We are pleased to announce that we have opened up our schedule and we are now accepting new patients. Take the next step by learning more at our free seminar.

"Music and dancing have always been a part of our marriage, just as it plays such a crucial role in our Czech heritage."

Checking — in on Czech Culture

— By Derek Jones

It only takes a few minutes of conversation with Charlie and Jeannette Patak to realize the deep sense of pride they have in their Czech heritage, and their excitement for the National Polka Festival, which takes place here in their hometown of Ennis every May. “Music, food and dancing are central to our culture, and we want to share that with others,” Jeanette said.

Jeannette’s grandparents immigrated to the United States from Czechoslovakia, now the Czech Republic. Although Jeannette was born in Ennis, she did not learn English until she was 6 years old. She met Charlie, and the two soon became high school sweethearts. They have been married now for 50 years. “Charlie has always been in bands that played Czech music,” Jeannette shared. “After we were married, we toured through states playing for festivals and even played on cruise ships.”

“Music and dancing have always been a part of our marriage, just as it plays such a crucial role in our Czech heritage,” Charlie chimed in.

He can play any number of instruments, and although his heart belongs to Czech music, he also has a fondness for old-time country and western music. “Playing music is a lot like going fishing,” he explained. “When you play, your troubles just seem to melt away.”

If Charlie provides the music, Jeannette brings the excitement of dancing. “I had to have knee surgery a few years ago,” she said. “However, I was up dancing just three weeks after because I just could not restrain myself any longer.” It seems the Pataks have struck a perfect balance between music and dance in their relationship.

With two sons and nine grandchildren, Charlie and Jeannette want to allow their culture and traditions to live on through their family. Jeannette shared a story from when their youngest son, Darrell, was about 9 years old. “He said he was bored just sitting at the table and asked me to teach him to dance, so I got him out on the dance floor at one of the festivals.” She smiled as she continued, “As we were dancing, an older lady cut in and took off dancing with him leaving me standing on the dance floor with her husband. She commented to me what a great dancer he was for his age. As a mother, I felt so much pride and joy in that moment. All our children and grandchildren are fabulous dancers,” she said with a grin on her face.

The Polka Festival has always held a special place in the Pataks’ hearts. “I played in the polka band in the very first Ennis Polka Festival in 1967," Charlie remembered. Since that first festival, he and Jeannette have continued to volunteer and participate in the event. Charlie elaborated, "The only time we missed was a few years while I was serving in the Army."

"Yes, it took the military to drag us away from the Polka Festival," Jeannette laughed, "but we came back to Ennis as soon as possible." Upon their return, they immediately jumped back into action supporting the festival through Charlie's band and volunteering.

Although the couple has volunteered with the festival since its inception, Jeannette took on a more official role when she began working with the Ennis Chamber of Commerce in 1996, eventually stepping into the role of president in 2007. "The Polka Festival Association and the Chamber work together, along with many other important organizations, to make the festival a reality each year," she said. Since its beginning, the event has continued to grow exponentially, and today, it takes place over three days. This year's event will take place Memorial Day weekend, May 24-26.

The list of activities over the course of the three days is seemingly endless. "Of course, the heart of the Czech culture is its music, food and dancing," Jeannette shared, "and there will be plenty of all three at the three fraternal halls and in downtown Ennis." There will be many other activities taking place at the festival, as well, such as a parade with more than 100 entries, street vendors selling various foods, arts and crafts, a Rotary Club-sponsored fun run and many activities for children, including a train, bounce houses and rock climbing. The traditional foods will be in good supply, such as kolaches, klobase, sauerkraut and pork-roast and dumplings. “No one should leave hungry,” Jeannette said. As to what she and the volunteers need to pull off such a large event successfully, she laughed and exclaimed, “Roller skates!”

Elaborating on the Czech culture, Charlie said, “We are a very tight-knit community — always available to help each other out. However, we want to share our culture with others, as well. That is where events like the Polka Festival become important.”

“We want to keep our heritage alive for future generations,” Jeannette agreed. If the success of the Polka Festival is any indication, it would seem people are eager to embrace the joy that radiates from the people of the Czech community. Jeannette beamed, “The Polka Festival is a celebration, and we want everyone to experience it.” She thought for a moment and added, “People may be surprised to find themselves dancing in the streets.” NOW

For Robert Bell, continuing to serve with fellow retired Marine Corps veterans is an honor, so he founded the Ellis County Detachment 1452 of the Marine Corps League in 2017. “I needed to get involved and knew about the League,” Robert explained. “I knew the closest League detachment was in Terrell, Texas, so I made some calls and did some research. I enjoy the camaraderie, the chance to continue to serve others and be with fellow Marines who understand each other.”

Twenty-one members answered the call that first year. Membership has more than doubled since with Robert serving as commandant. Meetings are held monthly at the Refiner’s Fire Ministries International Church in Ennis every last Thursday at 7:30 p.m. “We open and close with prayer. Prayer underlies everything we do,” Robert said. “The standard Marine Corps ritual, including the posting of colors, officer and committee reports and announcements and ‘Robert’s Rules of Order’ guide the meeting’s agenda.” Officers meet monthly every third Monday to plan that month’s agenda and conduct in-depth planning of the detachment’s activities. “Committees do the primary business of the detachment, and there’s no rank in the League,” Robert added.

Activities include monthly breakfast get-togethers in Waxahachie. “The food, service and fellowship are great,” Robert revealed. The detachment’s second Marine Corps Birthday Ball, held on November 10, 2018, at the Texas Motorplex in Ennis, attracted more than 170 guests. “The Detachment collected more than 300 toys for the Toys-for-Tots program for the first time this past Christmas,” Robert added. Detachment members sport their uniform in area parades and at festivals.

The nonprofit detachment launched a new program, Project FAITH (Funding Assistance In Trying Hours). “We wanted to do something for our communities and fellow veterans,” Robert explained. “Money is raised to help veterans and their families until they can get back on their feet. Committee members don’t know recipients’ names. Only the committee chair knows. We’re able to give quick answers and funding to individuals and families. This is a committee-driven project.”

A service that’s dear to these Marine veterans is providing military funeral honors to fellow veterans and their families. “It’s free of charge to families,” Robert said. “We have a growing cadre of members who want to serve by providing this final and earned honor.”

The group’s camaraderie helps overcome the challenges veterans face. “Mental health is the biggest challenge,” Robert admitted. However, it’s closely followed by retired veterans trying to fit into an ever-changing civilian world. “Veterans feel an isolation in the civilian world,” Robert added. “The League helped me to get out of the house and start doing something positive. For me and many of the other members, this is a full-time, enjoyable job. Our website has continued to evolve as a central hub of information for veterans and the greater Ellis County community.”

Born and raised in Fort Worth, Robert didn’t want to go the college route as high school graduation approached, so during his school’s career fair, he collected military recruiters’ cards. “I decided I would go into whichever service’s recruiter called me first, and the Marine Corps’ recruiter was first,” Robert recalled. “I could always go to college later.”

He entered the Corps in 1996 and retired on medical disability in 2015 with the rank of master sergeant. Stationed in Hawaii, California and Virginia stateside, he did tours in Afghanistan and Iraq. “I was infantry, performing jobs such as anti-tank assault and demolition,” Robert remembered. “I served as a drill instructor and as a school of infantry instructor and became a staff non-commissioned officer in 2003.” He did earn that college degree — in pastoral psychology in 2017. Robert and his wife, Jeannie, an Ennis native, have two daughters, ages 14 and 17.

The MCL, founded by John Lejeune in 1923, received its federal charter in 1923 from the U.S. Congress. The “few good men and women” who served as Marines for 90 days or more and were honorably discharged are eligible for membership. Robert is serving currently as the district 8 vice commandant for the Department of Texas, Marine Corps League.

His advice to those thinking of making the Marines a career? “Go into the military with the right mentality,” he said. “Be respectful and do your job. The same advice for going in or being out of the military.” NOW

Chili's Grill and Bar

— By Bill Smith

Chili's Grill and Bar

1006 E. Ennis Ave.
Ennis, TX 75119
(972) 875-3421
www.chilis.com

Hours: Sunday-Thursday: 10:45 a.m.-10:00 p.m.
Friday-Saturday: 10:45 a.m.-11:30 p.m.

The first time you sit across a table from Mike Read, you will feel like you are visiting with an old friend. As the manager of Chili's restaurant, Mike knows that it is, as he put it, "all about the relationship with our guests."

While many restaurants tend to move managers around, Mike has managed the Ennis store for almost 15 years. "I was in Waxahachie for about a year, then I came to Ennis and have been here ever since," he continued. "I did not plan from high school to be a restaurant manager. I actually went to college to study marine systems engineering, but I transferred from Texas A&M University to LSU at Shreveport and started working for Grandy's."

A series of moves to various towns in East Texas managing various stores eventually led to owning a Grandy's franchise in Dallas. Mike lived in Ennis, and after a while, the hour-long drive to north Dallas took its toll. The Chili's opportunity became available, and "the rest is history."

Chili's is a very popular restaurant in Ennis. Mike said, "I love the Chili's brand. I love the Chili's culture. It is a place where people come to meet, to eat and to have fun."

"The best thing is we never have the same day twice. I meet the neatest people," he said. One customer, who has been coming regularly to the restaurant for more than 6 months, came to Mike's mind. "I got to know this guy and recently learned about his vocation. It's pretty interesting. I meet all kinds of people."

The menu at Chili's appeals to a wide demographic, and specials like "Two for $25" or "Three for $10" make dining out very affordable. Mike related, "You would have a hard time making most of these items at home with all of the necessary ingredients for these prices. Plus, you would still have to clean up the mess!"

Of course, Chili's has changed over the years. Mike has seen the pendulum swing back and forth, but today, "We are back to basics. We have actually trimmed our menu back some, and though there is still a lot of variety, our core items and most popular items are what we started with — burgers, ribs, fajitas and margaritas."

"Nothing is sacred other than the guest returns."
— Norman Brinker

The first part of the story of Chili's on the Chili's website lists these items, and they go all the way back to the start of the franchise in Dallas in 1975. They just celebrated the 44th birthday of the restaurant chain on March 13. "We have more than 1,000 locations in the United States, and our website tells of our expansion into other countries."

Mike went on, "Chili's is a very dynamic culture. Another thing about the Ennis location is we are a training store. We train other managers here who go on to manage other Chili's restaurants in the Metroplex and beyond. One of the reasons for our success as a training store is the long tenure of our employees."

While Mike acknowledges some restaurants have a problem with staff turnover, it is just not a problem here. He mentioned with gratitude, "We have employees who are a team, and they take pride in working together. Sylvia Byrd is a long-term employee who has mentored many others. We have guests who come and specifically request a certain server."

Mike and his Chili's team recognize that it is all about the guest. They look forward to each one returning. NOW

Zoomed In: Dave and Joyce Lindauer

By Bill Smith

Dave and Joyce Lindauer have a Pop Up Gallery in the building they own with Russell and Nancy Thomas on the northwest corner of Dallas and Brown Streets. Joyce said, "We plan to be here three to six months. We completed the renovation of the building, but we don't think it will be a good time to lease the building for retail space until the street reconstruction is closer to being complete."

Most of the art on display is from the Lindauer's own collection, though there are some consignment items available, also. There are some beautiful works on display, and a visit to the Pop Up Gallery will give Ennis residents a good opportunity to see the progress of the brickwork along south Dallas Street.

ORRMER

— By Bill Smith

If you painted a picture of the love of music, the result would be a life-size portrait of Mollie B. “I love music because I love music,” Mollie B practically gushed. Since she started singing with the Jim Busta Band at age 3 and joined on the piano when she was 8 years old, music has been an important part of her life as far back as she can recall. Today, she travels all over the United States and has been to 11 countries, constantly inspiring others with her love of music.

“Our home was always filled with music,” Mollie continued. “While other families might think a great vacation would be a theme park, we would go spend a week at a polka festival, and I thought it was wonderful!”

The versatility as a musician and vocalist that Mollie exhibits is mind boggling to most of us. If you Google “Mollie B,” the first thing you are likely to find is a YouTube video with Mollie playing the accordion and singing a polka. However, in addition to the accordion that she is most often seen with, Mollie plays no less than a dozen other instruments. She shows great vocal versatility, as well. Besides her dance music, she will most likely bring on a melancholy or worshipful air with her rendition of “Ave Maria.”

Mollie remembers with fondness her last visit to Ennis for the National Polka Festival. “They gave me the key to the city and made me an honorary citizen,” she recalled. Besides performing for others, Mollie also likes to dance and looks forward to the opportunity to dance while in Ennis this year. “The polka is happy music. I can’t say I have a favorite polka, there are a lot of favorites that our audience looks forward to hearing, like the ‘Beer Barrel Polka,’ ‘Red Raven Polka,’ ‘Tic Toc Polka’ and ‘Apples, Peaches, Pumpkin Pie.’”

From the stage, Mollie sees the music making an impact on people. “I get to touch people’s lives with my music. I can see eyes light up, sometimes a happy tear, and it all starts with the music. There are so many people I would never have met without the music. It brings happiness to people.

“And, it really is not so much about the lyrics in the polkas. Some of the words are poetry, some of them are just kind of silly, like ‘Apples, Peaches, Pumpkin Pie’ or ‘In Heaven There is No Beer.’ The melodies are happy and make people enjoy the dancing. I also like the ‘hoolerie’ style where the primary instruments are two clarinets, a concertina, an accordion and a trombone.”

Speaking of dancing, Mollie recently had the opportunity to dance with a legend, Clint Eastwood, as she appeared with him in his latest movie, The Mule. “It was one of those ‘the show must go on’ days,” she remembered. “We had one day to shoot with him. We were in Atlanta, Georgia, and I had about 70 friends and extras there to be in this scene in the movie where I played the trumpet, saxophone and piano. I also sang a song I composed. The night before the shoot, I woke up at midnight with a sore throat. I prayed really hard that night and got to the set at 8:00 a.m., feeling a little better. We did the scene all day and wound up around 8:30 that night. I went directly to the emergency room, and my temperature was 103.1. I had strep throat, but we made it. When you travel for 150 performances a year in multiple states, with lots of handshakes and hugs and some nights only sleeping about three hours, it’s going to happen.”

Mollie continued about dancing with the legendary actor, “Dancing with Clint Eastwood was kind of surreal. I was dancing with an 88-year-old man, and it somehow felt normal.”

Mollie composed an original song, “A Day to Say Thank You,” that made it into the movie. “When I wrote the song, I wanted the melody line to be simple and fun — something that would stick in people’s minds, so they would be going home humming the song.”

Mollie believes that the secret to her success is her faith. “When I went to college at age 18, friends would say I had to be the happiest person they had ever met. They would ask why that was. My response was, ‘Well, I love music. I love my family, and I love God.’ Those three things are such a big part of my life. I have a wonderful, wonderful supportive family that was the backbone of my growing up years. I have great faith that God is there for me, and I have the chance to play and dance to such happy music. I love what I do!” NOW

Josh Ward

With nine consecutive #1 hit singles in Texas, more than 2 million views on YouTube and more than 6 million streams globally on Spotify, Josh Ward is country music blood to bone. In 2017 all six radio singles from his album Holding Me Together, hit the #1 spot on the Texas Regional Radio Chart. Josh went from opening act to the headlining spot in a matter of months. To his loyal fans he feels he owes everything. And so, his brand-new album is aptly named, More Than I Deserve. The first single on the album, "All About Lovin," is a sexy, tonka-fied, driver-of-a-song. "A Cowboy Can" is the true grit of this album and is what Josh says best describes himself. And then there is "More Than I Deserved" ringing out with its vulnerable steel and head-hanging resolve. Josh said, "I never thought I would be rolling down the road with one of the hottest bands in Texas playing shows across the United States."

Kody West

Kody started playing music in 2014, eager to take on as many acoustic gigs and song-writing competitions in the Dallas/Ft. Worth area as he could. A frequent support act of the Texas Country/Red Dirt band Dalton Domino and the Front Porch Family, he took on the role of tour manager in 2015. Thanks to his time on the road with the band and his ability to fill in when needed, he gained a following of loyal fans. Kody recorded his first full production EP, titled Higher Ground, later that year. The EP released in January 2016 with "Playing Cards" as the first song. Kody's music has been described as a mix of Texas country and bluegrass with some good-for-the-soul grooves.

JENNIFER JOHNSON

— By Lindsay L. Allen

Jennifer Johnson began cooking at 12 years of age, and years later, she fulfilled her dream of owning a bakery! Now Jennifer fills her time baking for her friends and family and, of course, her customers.

Between her favorite celebrity cook and cooking shows, Jennifer has plenty of recipes to experiment with, always adding her own flare to each one. “I was inspired to cook by both family and friends, and I continue to be inspired,” she said. “It makes me happy to make something that someone else eats and enjoys.” As she invents her own recipes, Jennifer is always looking for friends to sample and provide honest feedback, so the honing and perfecting of each recipe can continue. NOW

EXPERIENCING UNMARRIED BEA

Teddy Roosevelt said, "In the Grand Canyon, Arizona has a natural wonder, which is in kind absolutely unparalleled throughout the rest of the world. ... The ages have been at work on it, and man can only mar it."

While man added buildings for the comfort and convenience of visitors, the canyon remains untouched and raw in exquisite beauty. Detours along the way make reaching that beauty an unforgettable excursion.

Nostalgic stops along Route 66 make the scenic drive to Grand Canyon Village a memorable adventure, each stop adding color to the journey. Graffiti at the Cadillac Ranch in Amarillo. Cars and murals at the '50s-style Blue Swallow Motel in Tucumcari, N.M. Vintage photos of movie and TV stars from the 1950s at the El Rancho Motel in Gallup, N.M. And, of course, Eagles' music fans can't pass up photo ops standing on the corner in Winslow, Ariz.

Driving through New Mexico and Arizona affords mile after mile of picturesque mountainous wonder. Reserve time to visit the Petrified National Forest and the Painted Desert during your journey. Stop on the way at historic diners for old-fashioned food and a signature pie or milk shake.

Near the Grand Canyon, Williams, Ariz., is an unexpected treasure of its own. Shops and galleries line the streets in the small town, offering canyon memorabilia or arts and crafts from local artisans. Here, the Grand Canyon Railway departs daily for Grand Canyon National Park.

Built in 1908 by the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe Railroad, the depot served as an oasis for travelers. Listed on the National Register of Historic Places, the Williams Depot and original Fray Marcos Hotel (a Harvey House Hotel) represent the oldest concrete structures in Arizona.

While passengers wait to board the train, costumed entertainers treat the crowd to a Wild West show, setting the mood for a journey back in time. Since its initial trip on September 17, 1901, the millions of enchanted Grand Canyon Railway guests have included presidents, celebrities and ordinary individuals.

In the late 1800s, only the most adventurous explorers experienced the Arizona canyon. As railroads tied the nation together, the main line connected Chicago to Los Angeles passing through Williams, Ariz. Though originally intended to transport ore from the Anita Mines, investors soon realized the potential for tourism.

Because ore and mining proved unsustainable, the railroad relied on tourism to recoup its investment.

The $3.95 train ride replaced the $15 eight-hour stagecoach ride from Flagstaff, allowing visitors to experience the Grand Canyon. The adventure is definitely worth the 2019 ticket price.

Train hosts educate passengers about the history and topography of the area. As the train nears the station, hosts offer information about the layout of Grand Canyon Village and the many food options inside the park. The El Tovar Dining Room, a five-star restaurant, provides an elegant atmosphere for a delicious gourmet lunch.

Over the years, the Santa Fe built structures to accommodate an increasing number of tourists. In 1905, El Tovar became one of the finest hotels in the Southwest. In a progressive move, the railroad hired a woman, Mary Elizabeth Jane Colter, to design buildings that became the signature of the Grand Canyon National Park. Landmarks include the Hopi House, Lookout Studio, Bright Angle Lodge, Desert View Watchtower and Hermit's Rest.

These structures are evidence of Colter's distinctive imprint, a natural style of Pueblo Indian architecture. Garden spots, the American flag and architecture of the buildings in the village enhance the canyon experience. Plants and wildlife naturally add color.

Time passes quickly in Grand Canyon Village. Some visitors hike deep into the canyon, while others linger in shops or museums. Many stand in awe at the rim and soak in the magnificence, attempting to commit every detail to memory, experiencing, as Roosevelt said, "the wonderful grandeur, the sublimity, the great loneliness and beauty of the canyon."

No words describe the breathtaking beauty. Pictures fail to capture its magnificence. Only personal experience explains why Roosevelt loved Grand Canyon. NOW

CRYOSKIN 2.0

Less Fat. More You

Science That Works.

CALL US OR BOOK ONLINE TODAY TO SCHEDULE YOUR FREE CONSULTATION!

Cryoskin 2.0 offers the most advanced non-invasive treatment solution for slimming and toning. Cryoskin 2.0 Treatments apply the science behind the hot – cold Peltier effect which kills fat cells without damaging surrounding tissue and increases oxygen supply which aids in collagen production – resulting in slimmer, toned bodies and the elimination of fine lines and wrinkles.

EFFECTIVE. PAINLESS. CONVENIENT.

CryoSlimming is a 30 minute treatment that uses thermoelectric cooling to freeze fat, causing the cell death of subcutaneous fat tissue without damage to the overlying skin. The destroyed cells then pass naturally through your body's lymphatic system.

CryoToning helps diminish the appearance of cellulite, fine lines, and wrinkles. This 20-minute treatment boosts your production of collagen which eliminates cellulite, tones the area, improves skin elasticity, and reduces pore size.

Both treatments are safe, affordable, and painless alternatives to traditional surgical and body sculpting procedures. The average loss after one session is .5" to 1.5". The average fat loss in the treated area after 5 sessions is 38% to 40%.
