EDITOR'S NOTE

Savoring summer together!

"Everything's coming up roses," as the saying goes, but my gardens and pastures aren't all painted in rose-colored hues. The rains have brought forth a bumper crop of wildflowers this year. With a gardener's heart, I enjoy today's blooms knowing that my gardens and wildflowers are in constant flux. Everything has a season and a reason, and I was reminded of that so well recently when, first, my newest granddaughter was born, and then, later, before a month of moons, my mother passed away at age 93. I have a rose garden with a bush representing each of the ladies, both past and present, whom I've personally known in my family. A new little rose bush for granddaughter, Kyrie, joined my rose garden near the one I planted in Mother's honor more than 26 years ago when I moved to my little sanctuary overlooking the lake.

During the days spent celebrating my mother's life with my younger three sisters, I was also reminded, while we shared childhood memories with our family pastor, of how fast the world has been changing throughout our lives. With only seven years' difference in our ages, my youngest sisters, (yes, twins, hence the plural) didn't remember things like the milkman, with only a knock on the unlocked screen door, coming into the kitchen to deliver milk in bottles like I and my middle sibling recalled. Those days are gone, but I can celebrate writing these stories for you, readers, on a computer and making copies without using carbon paper. (Younger readers, ask your grandparents about typing with carbon paper on a non-electric typewriter!)

Love each moment and day.

The move from San Antonio to Corsicana a year ago this month was not like a homecoming, except that the smaller community was more like the town in which Captain Jennifer Schmidt of the Salvation Army grew up. "I kind of like the feel of a small town. You can go to Wal-Mart in San Antonio and never see anyone you know. Here, you may even know the cashier! I don't like the anonymity of the big city," Jennifer related.

A native of Gastonia, North Carolina, Jennifer attended high school at nearby Bessemer City High School. "Bessemer City might have had five traffic lights in the whole town. It is still a lot smaller than Corsicana." Jennifer continued, speaking of the way she had her future planned in high school, "I was eventually going to be an attorney, and I studied modeling and acting to pay for and prepare for that career."

Her plan was very focused. "I always had a passion for the dramatic flare of life, and I liked law. I wanted to be a medical malpractice attorney and was even further specific in that my practice would be in pharmaceuticals.

Jennifer's family had four generations of experience with the Salvation Army as their church, going back as far as her great-grandmother. "We actually took a different path for a while, but a devastating car accident drew us back to our faith," she continued. "My mother shared with me that she read the Bible and prayed for me while she carried me before birth, and she promised God that she would give the child to Him."

Jennifer referred to this as a "Hannah" moment, referring to the Scripture in I Samuel where Hannah, the mother of Samuel dedicates Him to the Lord's service (1 Samuel 1:11).

Thus after 16 years in the ministry with the Salvation Army, Jennifer is confident that she is exactly where she needs to be. She related, "I was asked one time if I believed in 'the preponderance of evidence.' I replied that I did not. Everything is black and white for me. There is no gray. I have had no mountains to overcome, no demons of doubt to slay, no great crises in my life since taking this path that would cause me to think otherwise."

Referring back to her youth, she said, "I was taking medical classes as an intern, so I would be familiar with medical terms for what I had planned my future career to be. But as soon as I knew I was going into the ministry, that all changed, and I spent my senior year in high school interning with a chaplain at our local hospice."

Now, Jennifer continues to grow with her assignments and is pursuing a master's degree in professional counseling through Liberty University in Lynchburg, Virginia. Most of her coursework can be completed remotely, but she recently flew to the campus for one last "residential intensive," which she describes as a semester of lectures in one week. She anticipates graduation in 2022.

"We will see where the path continues, but my plan is to use my counseling degree in relation to difficulties that families in ministry encounter. As full-time spiritual leaders, they can face unique challenges that many do not understand and that not only affect them, but also their whole families," Jennifer relayed.

"One of the reasons I am so drawn to it is we learn about how the rigors of being a counselor can cause problems in ministry, but we don't necessarily talk about the impact it has on our own family. I took pastoral counseling, and it tends to gloss over how counseling affects the counselor," Jennifer continued. "We learn to deal with other people's problems, but we do not learn how to deal with our own. We as a church tend to see mental illness as a spiritual problem, when it could actually be a chemical imbalance that needs other treatment."

The future of the Corsicana/Navarro County Salvation Army is in good hands as Jennifer seeks to minister to her flock, as well as minister to others who minister. She said, "The new hashtag for the Salvation Army is #FightForGood. That is ultimately what we want to do here, throughout the county, with other agencies, to be the army to fight for good for Corsicana and Navarro County. My life Scripture is Psalm 139, verses 13-16. There is a plan." NOW

Her results while at JLCCS were remarkable. "Madison was the DPL champion in shot-put and discus with distances of 26.11 and 82.11," Christina Cozart, the school's development director, noted proudly, "Her eighth-grade year was Madison's third year to win the shot-put title and first year to win the discus. She helped the girls' varsity team finish in the Top 10 that season."

Madison's participation in three sports — volleyball, basketball and track — earned her JLCCS Athlete of the Year at the school's 2018 annual banquet. Having just completed her freshman year at CHS, Madison gained knowledge and experience at a new level in all three sports. "I played middle front on the Freshman team in volleyball and post on the Freshman basketball team this last year," she said.

Madison started playing basketball at the Corsicana YMCA around second grade and volleyball the next year at the Y. "This past year at CHS, I got a lot of playing time in both sports," she noted.

Madison also competed at the JV level in track for CHS with several first-place finishes in both shot-put and discus. "Madison has a huge potential in track," CHS Track Coach Russell Woodall, said.

Madison could be the athlete to break an over-three-decade drought in state results in the two events for CHS according to Coach Woodall, but reaching that goal will take hard work. "If she continues working at getting stronger and developing technique, I feel that by the time her junior year comes around, she could be competing at the state track meet, having a real chance to medal or win the shot-put and discus."

High school athletics has taught Madison flexibility. "I've had to get used to the variety of abilities of other athletes," Madison said. "Some have played before as little kids, and some are playing the sport for the first time. Practices are tough because of the different abilities and knowledge."

Madison said her "little tutors" (also known as her friends) help her study. and her favorite classroom subject has been biology. "I like the environment," Madison added. "The teachers make it fun, so you want to learn."

Finding time for classroom studies is challenging, since Madison also has completed two years as middle front position on the Texas Image 17 club volleyball team coached by Cal Bwicheilug, "I like club volleyball because of the people," she said. "Everyone wants to do it and cares. There's lots of support."

A Corsicana native, Madison enjoys music of all genres. She's also excited about taking a CHS welding class next year. "I've always wanted to build something, and welding looks interesting," she remarked.

Madison likes to collect coins. especially old ones. "They look so cool," she added. Madison and her family have taken several family trips to U.S. states and the nation's capital. "I want to travel internationally, too," Madison said. She's volunteered with Vacation Bible School and Mission Impossible at JLCCS.

Her future includes majoring in business in college and playing at least one sport at that level. A true athlete, she concluded, "In sports I take a loss and turn around and make it a win next time. I like having fun and enjoy my teammates. I want to succeed and have them succeed." NOW

Miles Furniture Company

- By Virginia Riddle

Miles Furniture Company 300 N. Beaton Corsicana, TX 75110 (903) 874-8285 support@milesfurniturecompany.com www.milesfurniturecompany.com Facebook: Miles Furniture Company

Hours: Monday-Friday: 9:00 a.m.-5:30 p.m. Saturday: 9:00 a.m.-4:00 p.m.

The year was 1919, and Miles Furniture Company was most likely selling the popular furnishings of that era — a Queen Anne chiffonier, a Davenport-style sofa or a wind-up phonograph. Located in the heart of downtown Corsicana since that yesteryear, Miles Furniture personnel have created a tradition of service to customers and excellence in furnishings. "We're excited and proud to celebrate our 100th year in business this year," Cliff Patterson, manager, stated.

Once owned by the Miles family, the company still offers furnishings and accessories for living rooms, bedrooms, dining rooms and children's rooms. Product lines carried include La-Z-Boy recliners and chairs; Tempur-Pedic, Sealy and Corsicana Bedding mattresses; Mayo and Leather Italia. Customers can shop online or visit the showroom and have a welcoming staff member help them in person. "We offer free delivery and setup in the Corsicana city limits," Cliff said. "There's a small charge for delivery and set-up made outside the city within a 50-mile radius."

A staff of four are cross-trained to meet every customer's needs, and two additional staff members handle deliveries and set-up. The store accepts most major credit cards, cash and checks. "We also offer 90-day, in-store financing, same as cash, and will carry the financing further up to 24 months with a finance charge," Cliff explained. "We also offer long-term, zero-interest financing through Synchrony Bank."

Meeting new people is just one of the joys the staff experiences. "We love being able to satisfy their needs," Cliff said. "Many customers remember coming as a child to the store, so we're helping multi-generations of these families, as grandchildren and even great-grandchildren are furnishing their first homes. We offer quality furnishings at mid-level prices," he added.

Competition is stiff in the furniture market, especially from online stores, but the Miles Furniture staff changes with the times while offering old-fashioned service. The store is a member of the Corsicana & Navarro County Chamber of Commerce and the National Home Furnishings Association. "We're an employer in this community," Cliff said.

"We offer free delivery and setup in the Corsicana city limits."

Cliff came into the furniture business quite by chance. Born in Hobbs, New Mexico, he started helping his former father-in-law in the family's furniture business in Palestine, Texas, in May 1982 following a layoff at the Alcoa Plant where he had been working. "I learned this trade on-the-job," Cliff recalled.

A move to Austin, Texas, where he worked for La-Z-Boy, put Cliff on the road through Corsicana regularly to see his grown children living in Tyler. One day, he stopped in at Miles Furniture and got acquainted with Travis Miles Coe and his wife, Jeannie. "They wanted to retire, so I moved to Corsicana and started working here 15 years ago," Cliff recalled.

Cliff's son works with him at Miles Furniture, and Cliff has two grandchildren. "When I was 18 years old and graduating high school, I had no idea of going into this business. I was trained as a maintenance electrician!"

A winner of the Best of the Best in furniture stores on a regular basis, the celebration of 100 years in business is the best proof of quality products and customer service. Cliff concluded, "Mattresses are the closest thing we sell to necessities, so we try to always give the best customer service possible." A third-generation cowboy, 6-year-old Kolt Bottoms aspires to be the "funny man" and bullfighter at rodeos. He knows the job of rodeo clown well having traveled, starting at 4 weeks old, with his parents, Jason and Darla Bottoms, to rodeos in which his dad serves as pick-up man. Kolt's grandpa was a stock contractor, so rodeo runs in this young man's blood. Kolt's rodeo idols include his dad, Jason; Cody Sosebee; John Harrison; Jim Bob Feller; Darran Robertson; and Scotty Spencer.

Kolt just completed first grade at Mildred Elementary School, where his favorite subject is reading. He plays basketball and baseball and loves being with friends and family. However, Kolt explained, "Living the rodeo life and traveling with my parents makes being a cowboy special."

While their style is different, Jason York and Shellie Smiley-York are a couple who like to cook together, especially when it comes to outdoor grilling and smoking. Jason loves to create his own recipes, while Shellie gets inspiration from old family cookbooks and Rachael Ray. "We enjoy cooking and entertaining friends and family, especially in our new kitchen," Shellie said.

Jason, an Ennis Police Department detective, grew up in Corbet, gaining his cooking skills from his grandmother, Gladys Lake. "My favorite dinner was her fried pork chops," he recalled. Shellie, a Realtor with City Real Estate, grew up in Ennis. "My granny had dinner ready for my parents, who worked in Dallas, and my sisters and me," she remembered. "After school, I would go to her house for combread and butter." Now

SCAVENGER HUNT WINNERS!

Emily Green, winner of $100 gift certificate says, "Thanks so much, CorsicanaNOW! I can't believe I won the contest. It's always so much fun to play the game and look at all the ads!"

"Thank you, CorsicanaNOW, for the opportunity to play this game! It is so fun and I love trying to find the hidden items," says Heather Allen, winner of two Across The Street Bistro and Diner gift cards. "Lespecially love winning!"

"I really enjoyed playing the game in the CorsicacaNOW magazine. It took me back to my kids looking for hidden pictures when we went to the doctor's office. I enjoy the magazine and learning about people of Corsicana. Thanks for my win to Taylor's Barbecue." says Shirley Jordan.

Bursting with culture and natural beauty, Morocco is the perfect place for an exotic, dreamland adventure. Located in Northern Africa, the Atlas Mountains, Sahara Desert and Mediterranean Sea offer tourists a natural haven for exploration.

Step into Marrakesh for a unique look at city life, from snake charmers to markets filled with local treasures. Fresh food in this African paradise satisfies hard-to-please cravings and awakens senses with new flavors.

Marrakesh is one of the largest cities in Morocco and a common first stop, immersing visitors in local culture and cuisine. In this must-see mecca of beauty, orange trees decorate every corner of the city, while palm trees and cacti seem to reach the sky.

Visit the La Mamounia historic hotel to enjoy 200-year-old gardens and a place Winston Churchill called "the most beautiful spot in the world." Balconies overlook the terra-cotta buildings of the desert-like city, while the snowcapped peeks of the Atlas Mountains create harmonious views. In the busy streets, motorcycles and people commuting by donkey give the city a primitive feel.

Freshly squeezed orange juice and mint tea are staples of Moroccan culture everyone must try. Visit nearby eateries to enjoy traditional dishes, such as tagine: a slow-cooked stew often prepared and served in a distinctive cone-shaped pot. The dish comes in many varieties including vegetables, lamb, chicken and fruit.

Other Moroccan delicacies include couscous, shish kabobs and roasted lamb. Exotic spices, such as cumin, saffron, turmeric, cinnamon and ginger, are used to enhance the flavor of fresh food and are sold at the market in heaping mounds of colorful displays. Sign up for a cooking class to learn the art of Moroccan cuisine.

Once the sun sets in Marrakesh, wander into the world-famous market called the Jemaa el-Fnaa, located in the old city, or medina, to experience live entertainment, such as dancing, snake charmers and magicians. Even with all the excitement, alcohol is never seen and not an element of the culture, although some restaurants serve alcoholic beverages.

Nearby, markets, or "souks," beckon shoppers or curious onlookers into a world of color, aroma and diversity. Treasures, such as leather bags, Moroccan-style rugs and brass hanging lamps, are among the loot that can be bought at a bargain.

One thing you must know when traveling to this area is how to barter. Additionally, though the official languages of Morocco are Berber and Arabic, almost everywhere you go people speak some English or Spanish making communication possible.

Venture out of the city for a change of scenery and trip to the mountains. For about $130 plus tip, hire a driver to take you through beautiful farmland flourishing with orange trees and olive groves. Along the way, visit the Atlas Studios to see the world's largest film studio, home of shows such as Ben Hur, The Mummy and Game of Thrones.

Another attraction worth seeing is Aït Benhaddou, also known as "The Mud City," located in the foothills of the Atlas Mountains. The buildings, made from clay brick, date to more than 1,000 years old. Throughout the countryside, you can also find Argan farms where the popular oil is harvested by goats who climb the trees.

If beach life is your vibe, there is plenty of coast to choose from, where life slows down compared to the frantic streets of Marrakesh. Stop into Essaouira, and go for a camel ride on the beach, or visit a local market to feast on freshly caught fish.

Seaport fisherman sell their catch for the day and throw carcasses to the birds while outdoor restaurants allow you to pick your own fish before cooking it to perfection. Visit the farmer's market to see tables piled with strawberries, oranges with the stem and leaves attached and blueberries arranged in huge mounds free from plastic containers.

The Sahara Desert is just around the corner if you're up for a true adventure. Climb aboard a camel's back to explore the sand dunes on a guided tour for a once-in-a-lifetime, magical experience. Guides offer many different packages from day trips to overnight camping excursions where you can watch the sunset to the beat of drums then spend the night in a tent under the stars.

ONE 30-MINUTE TREATMENT COULD END YOUR KNEE PAIN!

Have you ever wondered how different your life would be if you could significantly reduce your knee pain? Where would you go, what would you do? What if this therapy took ONLY ONE 30-MINUTE TREATMENT? We're pleased to announce that knee pain sufferers don't have to wait any longer to get one of the most advanced treatments available today. If you suffer from debilitating knee pain, we invite you to regain control of your life by visiting Complete Health Medical Center, a modern, holistic medical facility.

WHAT IS OSTEOARTHRITIS (OA)?

Osteoarthritis, also known as degenerative joint disease, is the most common type of arthritis. In Osteoarthritis, the surface layer of cartilage breaks down and wears away. This allows the bones under the cartilage to rub together resulting in pain, swelling and loss of motion of the joint. Although in some people it progresses quickly, in most individuals joint damage develops gradually over years.

HOW DOES THIS TREATMENT WORK?

Advanced live motion sonography allows us to pinpoint problem areas with extreme accuracy. We prepare and introduce regenerative tissues into your knee (or other affected joint) and the healing process begins. Stem cells are the building blocks of nearly any tissue type, i.e. are multipotent, and support soft tissue supplementation and possible regrowth! This treatment also quickly reduces pain, inflammation and swelling of the joint. Most patients describe the treatment as getting a shot at the doctor's office and report little pain or discomfort.

WHAT ACTUALLY IS A STEM CELL?

Stem cells (also called mesenchymal cells) have the exceptional ability to take on the behavior and characteristics of their surrounding cells. As such, following a stem cell knee repair procedure, the injected cells may become specialized for the knee and, over time, may help to regenerate the damaged cartilage and other tissue. Results will vary among patients, but many report experiencing pain relief in as little as one week. You have probably recently seen many professional athletes in the news using stem cells to regenerate their bodies following a sports injury (including Super Bowl champion Peyton Manning). Stem Cell Therapy for joint repair is used for acute and chronic injuries, knee meniscal tears, loss of knee joint cartilage and to stop the progression of degenerative arthritis.

WHEN WILL I FEEL RESULTS?

Most people feel better as quickly as one week and can begin enjoying everyday activities within a few days following the treatment. Healing and regeneration continue for several months afterwards, further recovering more function in the joint and supporting tissues.

IS IT AFFORDABLE?

Yes. Our clinic has made stem cell treatments affordable and within reach of most people. Imagine eliminating the need to wear a knee brace or the dependency on antiinflammatories or opioids.

WHO IS A GOOD CANDIDATE FOR THIS TREATMENT?

Do you wake up with knee pain? Does your knee pain keep you from certain activities? Have you been told you need a knee replacement? Are you active and sometimes suffer from sore knees? Do you take medications for knee pain? Do you have difficulty going up and down stairs due to knee pain? Are you considering surgery to alleviate knee pain? Have you tried everything to get rid of knee pain with no success? If you answered yes to any of these questions, you are ready to apply to see if you are an eligible patient candidate at Complete Health Medical Center.

HOW DO I KNOW THAT THIS IS RIGHT FOR ME?

In many cases, regenerative medicine is a solution for knee pain. Our medical staff will give you an honest and fair evaluation of your particular knee pain. We are pleased to announce that we have opened up our schedule and we are now accepting new patients. Take the next step by learning more at our free seminar.
