Alan M. Taylor, II
MD, FACP, FACC

Paula L., Burleson, TX

My name is Paula, and I joined Diet Solution in March. I have been on every kind of diet for weight loss from other businesses. Even though I did lose some weight, it was hard. The food was not that great and I gained the weight back, so I decided to give Diet Solution a chance. I have enjoyed it very much! It included food that I liked to eat and the instructions were great. I was given everything I needed to accomplish my weight loss goal. The ladies always gave positive support and helped in every way they could by giving me recipes, providing moral support and answering all of my questions, as well as addressing any of my concerns. I was depressed when I went in, but now I have my self-esteem back. I look and feel great! I would recommend Diet Solution to anyone who likes to eat real food. Good luck to all! If I can do it, so can you!

Meet Our Doctors

Dr. Charles Town, DDS

Dr. Charles Town is the proud owner of Stonehaven Dental & Orthodontics. He recently achieved the Mastership Award from the Academy of General Dentistry, a distinguished award held by less than 2% of general dentists in the United States. Dr. Town is also the first doctor to become board-certified by the American Boards of Oral Implantology/Implant Dentistry in the Central Texas area. At Stonehaven Dental & Orthodontics, we work hard to go above and beyond the minimum requirements for continuing education to provide you and your family with the best dental care possible.

Dr. Peter Sutton, DMD, MSD

Dr. Sutton graduated #1 in his class from University of Kentucky and completed his orthodontic residency at one of the top programs in the country, University of Texas Health Science Center. Dr. Sutton has been practicing orthodontics in Texas for 7 years. Dr. Sutton wants orthodontics to be fun and engaging for his patients. He is skilled in many different treatment options from metal braces, clear braces to Invisalign Clear Aligners. His ultimate goal is to get each patient a great result and have fun during the process.

Dr. Kelsey Greene, DDS

Dr. Kelsey Greene, DDS completed her undergraduate degree in biochemistry with a minor in biology at Roanoke College. She graduated from VCU School of Dentistry in 2018 and went on to do additional training in general dentistry at the Washington DC Veterans Affairs Hospital. Dr. Greene enjoys practicing all areas of restorative and cosmetic dentistry. She is focused on keeping up with the latest dental technology and practices, and she continues to exceed the hours of continuing education each year. During her free time, Dr. Greene enjoys volunteering at dental service projects, cooking and spending time with family. She looks forward to meeting you!

EDITOR'S NOTE

Sunrise, sunset ...

Hours turn into days, which drift into weeks. Before long, another month passes. We blink, and years flash, leaving us wondering when that little boy became a man-child. Oh, we saw it years ago when that first facial hair pushed its way to the surface. But in our eyes, he still sits on a pile of dirt, sporting a tiny baseball cap and a smile that covers his chubby cheeks while he digs.

Now, he towers above his Nana — all 6-ish feet of his slender self. Finished with high school, he already fixes his eyes on the future. He, my oldest grandchild, barely resembles that baby in the backyard. My mind fights with itself about this young man, still that one who made me Nana, but different in many ways.

Watching my daughters graduate and leave home changed my life. Taking a ringside seat to view my grandson finish high school leaves me wondering where all those years went. How can this boy be a man already? Yet, I can't argue with reality. Some of you know what I mean. You, too, struggle with this fresh season of life when grandchildren become adults.

I dare not blink again. His brothers and cousins will follow suit in coming years. And where does that leave me? Great-nana? Not for a long while. I'm not ready, and neither are they. I still need to develop more wisdom for the next generation.

Enjoy the first day of forever, no matter what your age!

FADING ART

— By Lisa Bell

Few people hand-tool leather these days, and even fewer teach the art. Which means Victoria Brown learned her skills mostly from trial and error plus a few YouTube videos. “I’ve always been super crafty,” she said. “While scrolling Pinterest, I became fascinated by leatherwork, so I got a few tools and taught myself.” Later, she learned her great-grandfather tooled leather. Her grandparents still had his tools and a few of his pieces, so they gave them to Victoria. She now uses them, proud of the legacy her ancestor left behind.

Growing up in Burseson, Victoria always took part in FFA, showing lambs for three years. She once raised 25 chickens as a six-week project and showed them, too. “My grandmother was a professional baker and amazing seamstress. I inherited her creative characteristics,” Victoria shared. Entering home-economics competitions came naturally. She usually created something for those shows. In 2019, she began her journey with leatherwork, and in January 2020, she thought making something with leather for the craft section of the county show sounded like a good idea. Although still fresh in the process, her family and friends encouraged her to take a chance with her newfound creative outlet.

“My mom gave me the idea to make chaps,” she remembered. “Big, pretty, unique — the red, black and white theme just came to me.” With a tight deadline before the show, she sometimes worked for 24 hours straight, slept a few hours and worked again during her Christmas break. As a senior in high school, she entered the competition and won first place.

"When I finished, I said I'd never do that again," she said with a chuckle. Then her friend, Rebecca Halbert, asked her to make a pair of chaps. Thinking she had months, Victoria agreed. Then Rebecca asked if she could get them sooner. She wanted them for the Grand Entry at the Fort Worth Stock Show Parade. Challenged, Victoria took a deep breath and went to work. The girls ran track together during younger years. "She's a close friend and a big mentor," Victoria conveyed. "I made time to create her customized pair of chaps."

Although she appreciates the challenge of chaps, Victoria doesn't regularly make them. Still, she loves the uniqueness. "You can make them fit personalities," she said, which applies to any of her leather designs. Most of the time, she makes smaller items such as belts, wallets, gun slings, purse straps and Hey Dude shoes (a custom leather piece sewn to the top of shoes).

"Every tool does something different. I found my favorite techniques," she stated. Victoria pours a creative flair into each design with or without added color. She often sees the art in her mind. Sometimes, she sketches it before working with the leather. Her mom and dad, Elizabeth and Hurshell Brown, and her grandparents, Kent and Andrea Brown and Dixie Wallace, provide inspiration and critique of her work. They don't hold back on where she can improve with design or technique. "My dad's my biggest fan," she admitted. Her mom and grandparents don't fall far behind him.

Despite her success with leatherworking, she doesn't see it ever becoming a full-time job. "I'll always tool leather on the side," she declared. "I can get in the zone and relax while doing it." As a student at Texas A&M University, Victoria stays busy. Her school and leatherwork schedules merge. Finding time for her sorority and her brother, Grant, who also attends A&M, can feel overwhelming at times. However, the art helps release stress and results in a beautiful, finished product, giving her a sense of pride and accomplishment.

"I chose A&M primarily for the quality of education, atmosphere and location," Victoria explained. She enjoys having Grant there, and her sister, Monica, graduated from A&M. "My mom wanted me to go there, and they have an excellent business program," she said. Her dad, a Texas Tech alumnus, was originally reluctant to encourage his kids to attend A&M, but he always supports them with pride.

Still contemplating her future, Victoria plans on a career in business, although she doesn't know what that looks like yet. With a minor in Spanish, she wants to incorporate that into her future, too.

In the meantime, she'll continue coming back to Burleson frequently and helping her younger brother, Harrison, with FFA projects. Born into an environment that surrounds her with people who love leatherwork, she enjoys making things that fit those personalities and looks forward to doing it for a long time. NOW

Dr. Sheila Birth and Dr. Christi Fletcher began a friendship and business more than 30 years ago. Because the two women have similar values and vision, they make a dynamic team in providing more than orthodontics. Joined by Dr. Jigna Patel, they provide services not only in Burleson, but also in Arlington, Fort Worth and Keller.

With close relationship between doctors, patients can anticipate seamless interaction with whomever they see. “We stay on top of the latest technology,” Dr. Birth said. “You can’t do that without a partner. While one stays in North Texas, the other attends a conference. The next time, we switch places.” Attending educational events helps them maintain innovative treatment for their patients, starting with 3-D X-rays.

Orthodontics by Birth & Fletcher provides much more than braces. They fall within the top 1 percent of Invisalign providers throughout the world. With a mix of 50/50 between the two methods, they strive to make nature better. Beyond straightening teeth, they also practice sleep medicine. For patients who deal with sleep apnea, they often offer alternatives to the traditional CPAP machine. “By treating with oral appliances, we give patients more freedom. Travel with a CPAP isn't easy," Dr. Birth shared.

While a fantastic smile can mean a lot, a more serious issue comes from the temporomandibular joint (TMJ), which involves the joint in front of the ear. TMJ can cause headaches, migraines, tinnitus, jaw pain, choking, popping or lockups. Using state-of-the-art TruDenta®, they see 97 percent success in overcoming TMJ. The protocol, developed by a neurologist, requires only a 12-week treatment.

With the depth of their experience, Dr. Birth and Dr. Fletcher receive invitations to meet with scientists, chemists and engineers to help develop new treatments and technology. They gladly accept many of the requests. "I'm constantly learning. I always stay curious," Dr. Birth admitted. One of their newest offerings includes dental monitoring. With this technology, they scan teeth weekly and check progress without an in-person visit. It allows them to see a patient every 10-12 weeks, saving time and money. "As far as I know, we're the only one in North Texas using this technology," she said.

The SmileMate app allows anyone to see what they look like with braces, Invisalign and straight teeth. The QR code on their advertisement in BurlesonNOW makes going to the phone app easy.

Of course, the support staff makes all the difference. "The team is incredible. They're like family," Dr. Birth stated.

Marketing Director Tonya Talbert shared, "Her team doesn't leave. Most started with her. Some came in as patients and now work here, and we see third-generation patients, too."

Dr. Birth said, "There's no age limit to dental care. You're never too young or too old to seek treatment. We see patients in their 80s — one at 93. And even children can have sleep apnea." She experienced this with her son. At 7, she began treatment, and within a month, he quit snoring. They deal with sleep apnea in many children, improving their life immensely.

Orthodontics by Birth & Fletcher always offers a discount to those who mention their ad. Call and schedule a free consultation to learn what they can do to make your mouth better. NOW

Pat Haley shares the release of her newest novel, Stonebound Plague.

Zoomed In: Sam Sorensen

By Lisa Bell

Director of Retta Christian Learning Center, Sam Sorensen (center), poses with her assistant directors, Amanda Conley and Randi Hickman. A graduate from Dallas Baptist University with a masters in teaching, Sam enjoys watching the kids grow. “At this age, they experience everything for the first time. That’s the best thing about early childhood,” she said.

Accepting 6-week infants through fourth-graders, the nonprofit child care center operates as part of Retta Baptist Church and opened in August 1983. As the third director, Sam remembers growing up at the center with Amanda. “The center and I couldn’t do all we do without my assistants. We’re here to help the community raise their children well,” Sam added. “We teach with grace. We’re all imperfect and need grace.”

In the Kitchen With

DOLLY PANNELL

— By Lisa Bell

A self-taught cook, Dolly Pannell admits to strong women in her life who were also amazing cooks. “My biggest influences include my grandmothers, Dolly Payne and Hazel Smith, and my mother, Joanne Payne.” Growing up on a farm in Godley, Texas, Dolly experienced true country life. “We planted a garden and raised our own cattle, pigs and chickens,” she shared. “We ate home-cooked Southern meals with everything always fresh.”

Dolly enjoys cooking as a way of serving and loving family. “It brings me joy and satisfaction to see people’s reactions when they enjoy my food,” she added. Dolly brings peace to families through her cleaning business, Double Clean Team. But she looks forward to Thanksgiving when she cooks with her mother and twin sister, Holly Hodge. NOW

Cheesy-Chicken Enchilada Bake

Serves 6. Prep time: 10 minutes; cook time: 20 minutes.

1 lb. dry rotini pasta (I use gluten-free.)
10 oz. processed American cheese,
cut in cubes
2 1/2 cups shredded cheese
(divided use)
1 cup milk
3 cups cooked chicken, shredded finely
19 oz. enchilada sauce

1 4.5-oz. can chopped green chilies
3 Tbsp. butter, melted
1 Tbsp. taco seasoning
2 tsp. garlic powder
Toppings: Cilantro, limes and sour cream
(optional)

1. Preheat the oven to 350 F; grease a 9x13-inch baking dish. Cook the pasta at minimum recommended cooking time. Drain; set aside.
2. In a large microwave-safe bowl, add the cubed cheese, 1/2 cup shredded cheese and milk. Cook on high in 30-second increments, mixing each time until all is melted and well blended.

3. Add the cheese mixture to the pasta; stir well.

4. In a large bowl, mix the chicken, enchilada sauce, chilies, butter, taco seasoning and garlic; add to the pasta mixture. Mix well.

5. Pour into a baking dish; top with the remaining 2 cups of shredded cheese.

6. Bake 15-20 minutes until bubbling on the sides; remove from the oven. Let cool for 5 minutes. Serve with cilantro, limes and sour cream.

Keto Margarita

Serves 1. Calories: 111; Protein: 0g; Fat: 0g; Carbs: 3g; Fiber: 0g

1 1/2 oz. tequila
2 Tbsp. lime juice
1 Tbsp. orange juice
1/8 tsp. orange extract
4 drops liquid sweetener or 1 Tbsp. granulated sweetener
Lime zest or slice, for garnish (optional)

1. Combine all ingredients, except the garnish. Pour over ice. Garnish as desired.

Garlic Roasted Broccoli

2 heads broccoli, cut into small florets
 3 Tbsp. melted coconut oil (or oil of choice)
 1 1/2 tsp. salt
 1/2 tsp. black pepper
 5 cloves garlic, minced
 Pinch red pepper flakes (optional)
 1 tsp. lemon juice

1. Preheat the oven to 400 F. Toss the broccoli with the oil, salt, black pepper and garlic. Place a single layer on a baking sheet, preferably with a rim.
 2. Bake until the broccoli is tender, can be pierced with a fork and the edges are browning — about 15-20 minutes. Turn once halfway through the cooking; add the red pepper flakes, if desired.
 3. After baking, squeeze the lemon juice liberally over the broccoli. Serve.

Crock-Pot Chicken and Rice

Serves 4-5. Cooking time: Approximately 7-8 hours.

1 lb. boneless, skinless chicken breast
 1/2 large onion, finely chopped
 1 10.5-oz. can cream of chicken soup
 1 8-oz. box Zatarain's Yellow Rice Mix, cooked per package directions
 1 1/2 cups Monterey Jack cheese
 1 15-oz. can whole kernel corn, drained
 3/4 cup sour cream
 Fresh parsley, finely chopped (optional garnish)

1. Place the chicken in a Crock-Pot; add the onions and soup on top of the chicken. Cook on low for 7-8 hours or on high for 3-4 hours.
 2. At the end of the cooking time, open the Crock-Pot; break the chicken into small pieces. Add the rice, cheese, corn and sour cream to the Crock-Pot; stir until combined.
 3. Replace the lid; cook for another 15 minutes, or until everything melts. Sprinkle with additional cheese and parsley, if desired.

Italian Chicken, Potato and Green Beans

Cook time: Approximately 1 hour.

2 14.5-oz. cans Del Monte green beans, drained
 1 lb. chicken breast, 1/2-inch thick
 3-4 medium Yukon Gold potatoes

"Therefore I tell you, do not worry about your life, what you will eat or drink; or about your body, what you will wear. Is not life more than food, and the body more than clothes? Look at the birds of the air; they do not sow or reap or store away in barns, and yet your heavenly Father feeds them. Are you not much more valuable than they? Can any one of you by worrying add a single hour to your life?" Matthew 6:25-27

Keto Margarita

1/2 cup butter, melted
1 pkg. dry Italian dressing mix

1. Line one end of a glass 8x10-inch baking dish with green beans; line chicken breasts in the center of the dish. Cut the potatoes; place them on the opposite end of the dish from the green beans.

2. Drizzle the butter over the chicken, potatoes and beans; sprinkle dry dressing mix evenly over the top. Cover with foil.
3. Bake at 350 F for 1 hour.
4. Tips: You may use fresh green beans. Make sure to cut the potatoes the same size, so they cook better. Make sure the chicken breasts aren't too thick.

Lazy Mom Cookies

Easiest and best "quick" dessert.

1 box yellow or white cake mix
2 eggs, beaten
5 Tbsp. butter, melted
2 cups mini M&M's (or mini chocolate chips)

1. Mix all ingredients together. Place in a greased 9x13-inch pan or glass dish; bake at 350 F for 20 minutes.

Jalapeno Corn Dip

Serves 8. Prep time: 5 minutes; cook time: 20 minutes; calories per serving: 170.

4 oz. softened cream cheese
1/2 cup sour cream
1 11-oz. can sweet corn niblets
1-2 jalapeños, finely minced

1 green onion, finely chopped
1 cup Monterey Jack cheese, shredded (from a block)
1/2 tsp. Lawry's Seasoned Salt
Dash cayenne pepper
Dash hot sauce (optional)

1. Preheat the oven to 400 F.
2. Mix the softened cream cheese and sour cream in a large bowl.
3. Drain the corn; let it dry on a paper towel to remove excess water. Add the corn, jalapeños, green onions, cheese, salt, cayenne pepper and optional hot sauce to the cream cheese mixture; mix well.
4. Pour into a baking dish; bake 20 minutes.

Hip MEETS HISTORIC

— By Virginia Riddle

A casual stroll around the courthouse square; leisurely shopping and dining, while enjoying live music; and soaking in some of Denton's rich history and cultural arts may be just the ticket for a visit. But there's even more to this beautiful city. Located just north of the Dallas-Fort Worth Metroplex, Denton is home to the University of North Texas, Texas Woman's University and North Central Texas College. Music of every genre can be heard day and night pouring out of some very hip venues.

Denton was the third city, behind Austin and Fort Worth, to be named a Music Friendly Community by the Office of the Governor's Texas Music Office in 2017. However, Denton glows culturally vibrant in the other arts, too. Bright murals decorate many of the buildings, and the Patterson-Appleton Arts Center, repurposed in the city's historic steam power plant with its soaring ceilings and original industrial hardware, offers more than 20 art exhibits annually in two galleries and a sculpture garden. Art galleries, studios and performance halls abound in this city and its institutions of higher learning. Campus Theatre, located in a historic movie-on-the-square theater, hosts live productions, concerts and film festivals.

The city, founded in 1857, is also Denton County's seat of government. The courthouse, built in 1896 and restored in 2004, majestically anchors the Courthouse-on-the-Square District and is host to the county's museum. Just south of downtown, docents and staff welcome visitors for tours of two historic homes. The Bayless-Selby House Museum, a Victorian home, tells the story of life in the late 1800s into the next century. Next door is the Denton County African American Museum, housed in a home that once was part of the Quakertown community. It features the papers and medical instruments of Dr. Edwin D. Moten, Denton's first African-American doctor.

Visitors can time their journey to Denton to coincide with one of the city's many festivals and communitywide or college sporting events. There's a special event to interest every visitor and offer family-friendly fun, including: a Black film festival; Texas storytelling; a redbud festival; Juneteenth; a comic art exposition; a blues festival; Twilight Tunes, a free concert series on the courthouse grounds; and festivals honoring hot rods, dogs and wassail. Children can also enjoy the Explorium Children's Museum and colorful park playgrounds.

Outdoor and sports enthusiasts and animal lovers can experience the thrill of fast cars or additional festivals and concerts at the Texas Motor Speedway, host of the NASCAR Cup, or take a walk or bike ride on one of the 27 hike-and-bike trails in parks around Denton or the trails at the Clear Creek Natural Heritage Center. Nearby Ray Roberts Lake State Park offers camping, hiking, biking, horseback riding, rollerblading, swimming and boating opportunities. Horseback riding is offered at several area facilities, and canine companions are welcome in most parks and on trails.

At the end of a busy day, after dancing the night away to a favorite tune played in one of the many venues around town, settle into a stay at your choice of Denton's hotels, motels, area bed-and-breakfast inns or camping opportunities in cabins, tents or RVs. The stars of Texas shine brightly over Denton — home to fine dining, great music, fun activities and history.
