DIET SOLUTION WEIGHT LOSS CENTERS

Dr. Alan M Taylor II

Charles H., Rice, TX

I've lost 105.6 lbs. due to the support of Diet Solution Center and my family, and I lost it all in 8 months. I went to the doctor and was diagnosed with some heart issues, and I basically had to take charge of my life. Since I've lost the weight, I'm no longer on blood pressure and cholesterol medicine. I feel a whole lot better, and, hopefully I'll be able to live a little bit longer by taking care of myself. Thanks to Diet Solution because I could not have done it without them. Thanks to Kelli and Mika. They've been very supportive. I appreciate all the help I got.

EDITOR'S NOTE

It's Hispanic Heritage Month!

September 15-October 15 is the time set aside to give special recognition to the contributions of Latinos and Latinas to American life and culture. This time was chosen because it includes the independence days of eight different Latin American countries. This celebration of culture and heritage started as just one week, when President Johnson signed it into law, in 1968. It became a month-long celebration in 1988, when President Reagan expanded it.

During this month, the schools will place special emphasis on the contributions of Hispanic Americans in history, the arts, science and other fields of endeavor. In many parts of our country, Latinos and Latinas were the first European settlers. Many counties in Texas are named for early Hispanics settlers in those areas, or for Hispanic signers of the Texas Declaration of Independence, like Navarro County, named for José Antonio Navarro, who was an in-law to James Bowie.

ECHO will be hosting a celebration of Hispanic Heritage at Railyard Park on the 28th. It's not on the calendar, because I didn't find out about it until I was writing this piece, but there will be food, fun, music and the folklórico dancers from Dunaway Elementary School! It's a great way to spend a day.

And while we're on the topic, WaxahachieNOW could use more stories about the contributions of Latinos and Latinas living right here. You are an important part of life in this community, and your stories aren't being told enough! Call me or email me if you know a local educator, community leader, athlete, dancer, dreamer or doer who has a great story to tell!

¡Viva la celebración!

The Waxahachie Symphony Association has been bringing classical music to Ellis County listeners since 1977. Current president, Melissa Chapman, is committed to their continuing mission of making the performing arts available to our community. “I’ve been on the board for 11 years now. I can remember when I started, we offered a free concert, because attendance was so low. We barely had 100 people show up. But thankfully, word has gotten out, and for the last two years, we’ve been selling concerts out on a consistent basis!”

The WSA partners with the Fort Worth Symphony Orchestra and other groups to bring a mixture of classical, jazz, musical theater and pops concerts to venues around Waxahachie. “We host three fall concerts and three spring concerts each year,” Melissa said. “Our partnership with the Fort Worth Symphony Orchestra has lasted for decades. They always supply the marquee performances of each season. We also partner with the Van Cliburn Competition to feature winners of the competition at our concerts. We take advantage of the opportunities we have to hear world-class musicians, right here in the Metroplex.

“This is music for everybody,” Melissa emphasized. “There is no age group. This is music families can enjoy together. Grandparents bring their grandkids to these concerts. Beautiful music comes in all forms. There is nothing better than watching kids at their first orchestra performance! They have no preconceptions of what this music is. You see them tapping their toes and swaying in their seats and clapping their hands. It doesn’t matter if it’s classical or jazz. It’s just good! More people who are not longtime concert goers are showing up and realizing this is something they can enjoy and appreciate. We bring in great musicians to expose new people to something they haven’t heard before, as well as please the old fans. We try to always have some old favorite pieces fans know and love, but also some new pieces you may not have heard before. Because of the intimate settings, there isn’t a bad seat in the house.”

This fall's concert season includes soprano Christina Major and baritone Jeffrey Snider singing a mix of classical, spiritual and musical theater pieces, in September. The FWSO will present a pops concert in November featuring the music of John Williams, Aaron Copland and George Gershwin. And then they'll come back in December for the Christmas concert. "The Christmas concert has sold out for years. People love that one. It's our gift to the community. It has all the warm fuzzies and feels, with traditional Christmas music," Melissa said.

Many of their concerts are hosted at Nelson University (formerly SAGU), in their Hagee Communication Center Performance Hall. Others are held in the Chautauqua at Getzendaner Park. But some of their most important concerts happen at local schools. "The Shirley Singleton Memorial Children's Concerts are named in honor of lifelong music lover Shirley Singleton. She was the mother of the president of CNB, who is still the major sponsor," Melissa explained. "These concerts bring outstanding musicians and music to Ellis County fifth-graders. It started out as just one yearly concert. Now we have three: one for Waxahachie students, one for Midlothian students and one for the rest of Ellis County. It's an opportunity to expose them to classical music right before they go into middle school and have the opportunity to go into band. For the last several years, the concerts have focused on connecting the music to Texas history." The orchestra presents music from each of the six countries whose flags have flown over

Texas, and provides teachers with lesson plans to extend the learning before and after the concerts, so it becomes an integrated part of the curriculum, joining music and history. “We have over 2,000 children at these concerts, and they’re free for every one of them.”

The Belles and Beaus program is an opportunity for high school juniors and seniors to take an intro class on what to expect at a symphony concert. “It’s part music appreciation, learning the backstory of what you’re listening to, and part etiquette and formal dancing,” she informed.

“Our Young Artist Scholarship Program awards $5,000 in college scholarships each year,” Melissa said. “They’re for Ellis County seniors and are awarded in instrumentalist and vocalist categories.”

Missella is excited about how much the organization has grown in recent years. “Last year, we were the first arts organization in Ellis County to sell out of season tickets. We’re hoping to do it again this year. We’re averaging over 400 people per concert. Last year, every FWSO performance sold out. We work hard to keep the ticket prices low, so they’re affordable for whole families to come. Our sponsors and generous donors make that possible. The Waxahachie Arts Council, the Waxahachie Foundation and the Texas Commission on the Arts all help us do this. The board is run by 12 volunteers who help with every aspect of the organization. Nothing delights us more than the sight of our audience’s happy, smiling faces as the curtain falls at the end of a show.” NOW

TALES OF TEXAS

THE MAN WHO ENDED WWII

— By Emma McKay

In Fredericksburg, Texas, on February 24, 1885, the recently widowed Anna Josephine (Henke) Nimitz gave birth to her first and only child, Chester William Nimitz. He spent his childhood wandering the halls of the steamship-shaped hotel on Main Street, which his paternal grandfather, Charles Nimitz, ran.

When he was a teenager, Nimitz met two officers from the United States Military Academy in West Point, New York. Inspired by their service, he eagerly applied to learn at West Point, but he was rejected. Undeterred, in 1901, at the ripe young age of 16, he tested for a position at the United States Naval Academy in Annapolis, Maryland, to which he was later appointed. Upon receiving the news, Nimitz dropped out of Kerrville's Tivy High School to pursue his dream of serving his country.

Nimitz was a diligent student. On January 30, 1905, he graduated from the Naval Academy seventh in his class of 114. He was described as a man "of cheerful yesterdays and confident tomorrows" in the Naval Academy's yearbook. Nimitz's charisma and aptitude for learning would aid in his advancement throughout his career.

On January 31, 1907, after having served two years' mandatory duty on the USS Ohio and the USS Baltimore, Nimitz was promoted to ensign. In July 1908, while commanding the USS Decatur, he ran the destroyer aground. Ensign Nimitz took full responsibility for putting the Navy ship in danger. Due to his stand-up character and his shining record, his punishment was minimal.

After this hiccup in his career, he was assigned to continue his naval education, this time studying submarine vessels. In January 1909, he reported for duty to the First Submarine Flotilla, which he would be granted command of in May of that year. Thus began his decade-long career as a submariner. During this time, he sharpened his leadership skills as he assumed command of more submarines.

When September 1918 rolled around, Nimitz was back on land, working for the Office of the Chief of Naval Operations. Just a month later, he became a member of the Board of Submarine Design in addition to his duties at the Naval Operations office. After having served a year's duty as an officer aboard the USS South Carolina, Nimitz was sent to Pearl Harbor in 1920 to build a submarine base.

In 1922, Nimitz was sent to the Naval War College in Rhode Island to study for 11 months. Later, he would consider this period of education as highly beneficial to his fight in World War II. Over the next 20 years, Nimitz continued to build an impressive résumé through commanding vessels and even establishing the NROTC unit at the University of California-Berkeley. His accomplishments proved how respected he was as a leader by both his sailors and his superiors.

On the morning of December 7, 1941, the Imperial Japanese Navy Air Service launched a surprise attack on Pearl Harbor. Following this devastation, Nimitz, who had been working as chief of the Bureau of Navigation, was promoted to commander in chief of the Pacific Fleet by President Franklin D. Roosevelt. With his promotion, Nimitz led his men aboard the USS Grayling to victory at the Battle of Midway.

In December 1944, Nimitz was promoted to Fleet Admiral of the United States Navy. This rank, recently created by Roosevelt, was the highest rank in the Navy. As Fleet Admiral, on September 2, 1945, Nimitz signed the Japanese Instrument of Surrender aboard the USS Missouri in Tokyo Bay following the atomic attacks on Japan, thereby concluding the Second World War.

On February 20, 1966, Admiral Chester Nimitz died in his home in Yerba Buena Island, California. He was laid to rest next to his wife, Catherine, at the Golden Gate National Cemetery. In the 1960s, his grandfather's hotel in Fredericksburg, the Nimitz Hotel, was transformed into a museum to honor the WWII admiral. As per Nimitz's request, the museum expanded to honor his brothers in arms. The National Museum of the Pacific War makes its home in the former hotel alongside the Admiral Nimitz Museum. NOW

Spinal Decompression Treats Back & Neck Pain Without Surgery or Injections

Spinal Decompression Therapy specifically targets herniated, bulging and degenerative discs in the lower back. By relieving the pressure and allowing those discs to rehydrate, it takes away the symptoms of back pain, back spasms and shooting/stabbing pain down the legs to the feet, sciatica and more.

This procedure repositions the disc and rehydrates it, allowing water, oxygen and nutrients to be absorbed.

The Cottages on Cantrell

The Cottages on Cantrell are a community of brand-new homes tucked away, within walking distance of historic downtown Waxahachie. Phase I of the neighborhood consists of 17 residences, 13 of which are already occupied. The next phase will be eight residences closer to the main road. “They’ll be the same concept as our current units, eight units and a carriage house,” explained Marketing and Business Manager Kylee Pendery.

“We’re a smaller floor plan community,” added Project Manager Donnie Lord. “While this idea is new to Waxahachie, it’s been around a while. The idea started in Seattle and spread to other dense urban areas. We’re planned as a collection of homes — eight residences and a carriage house with meeting areas and extra space for celebrating with friends and community.”

Their floor plans range from a 1,200-square-foot, two-bedroom, one-bath, up to a 1,500-square-foot, three-bedroom, two-bath. “Some of our residents are young singles, starting out with their first homes, while others are retirees who are downsizing,” Donnie revealed. One big pro of our community is that the HOA fees pay for all landscaping and yard maintenance. This is a great place if you want to enjoy a lock-and-leave lifestyle. You get all the enjoyment of home ownership without all the hassles. These are lovely homes that are easy to maintain. We wanted to build beautiful homes that the community can be proud of. Canyon Creek and Bradbury Construction are the two builders who are helping us do that.”

The Cottages on Cantrell are half a mile from historic downtown Waxahachie, and connected, by a new pedestrian bridge, to the old Bullard Heights Neighborhood Park, providing easy walking access to downtown shopping and restaurants, Railyard Park, the Farmers Market and the city dog park. “You can see the courthouse from here,” Donnie enthused. “We also have our own dog park here in The Cottages at Cantrell community. We just completed it. And we’re building a pocket park that will be complete and ready to use by fall. We have a fitness center, and some of the space inside it is being converted to a yoga studio with a local instructor.” As far as accessing the wider world, I-35 is just a quarter of a mile away.

“WE WANTED TO BUILD BEAUTIFUL HOMES THAT THE COMMUNITY CAN BE PROUD OF.”

“We’re here, and people are forging neighborly friendships,” Donnie pointed out. “These people value both the sense of community and their independence. We’re making a shift away from wanting acreage, toward close community. People understand the appeal of this lifestyle — ownership with no maintenance.”

“We understand the challenges of the post-COVID real estate market, but we’ve seen a massive uptick in interest this summer,” Kylee emphasized. “We only have four units left in Phase I. Selling those will trigger the building of Phase II. If you’re interested in learning more, come see our model home at the address in our contact information. And speak to Missy Phillips at Remington Team Realty if you’re ready to buy!” NOW

CookingNOW In the Kitchen With BRITTANY TUTTLE

— By Adam Walker

Brittany Tuttle lives on a farm with her husband, five kids, two Golden Retrievers, three cats, a hedgehog and cows. “I enjoy cooking because it gets my family together to create memories and because food makes everyone happy! Some moms get nervous about the messes, and the messes will happen. But they always clean up, too.” As a homeschool mom, she teaches in the co-op they run. “We offer a cooking class where I’ve taught the kids lots of fun recipes. One of our family’s favorite things is having a Kids Bake Off! Every child creates their own recipe, making whatever they want, and mom judges who made the best. Sometimes, I throw in a ‘twist,’ where they all have to use a specific ingredient.” NOW

Little Dennis’ Pumpkin Chocolate Chip Cookies

2 1/4 cups flour
1 tsp. baking powder
1/2 tsp. baking soda
1/2 tsp. salt
2 tsp. pumpkin pie spice
1 cup sugar
2 sticks real butter

2 large eggs
1 15-oz. can pumpkin
1 tsp. Mexican vanilla
2 cups semisweet chocolate chips

1. Preheat the oven to 375 F.
2. In a large bowl, mix the first 5 ingredients; set aside. Using a mixer, cream the sugar and butter in a medium bowl. Add the eggs, one at a time. Add the pumpkin and vanilla.

3. Slowly add the flour mixture. Once combined, lightly mix in the chocolate chips.

4. Scoop onto a nonstick pan, 1-inch dollops, 1 inch apart. Bake approximately 15 minutes, until the bottoms are slightly brown.

Sourdough Chocolate Chip Cookies

1 cup unsalted butter
1 cup light brown sugar, firmly packed
2/3 cup granulated sugar
2 large egg yolks, room temperature
1 1/2 tsp. Mexican vanilla extract
2/3 cup sourdough discard
2 3/4 cups flour
1 tsp. baking powder
1 tsp. baking soda
3/4 tsp. Himalayan pink sea salt
1 1/2 cups semisweet chocolate chips

1. In a saucepan, melt the butter over medium-low heat. Increase the heat to medium; cook, stirring constantly. Once the butter slows or stops popping and it begins to turn golden brown, immediately remove it from the heat. Pour into a large heatproof mixing bowl; allow to cool until it is no longer warm to the touch before proceeding.

2. Once the butter has cooled, add the sugars, egg yolks and vanilla extract; stir until well-mixed. Add the sourdough discard; mix well, until fully incorporated.

3. In a separate bowl, whisk together the dry ingredients. Slowly add the dry ingredients to the wet, stirring until thoroughly combined. Fold in the chocolate chips until well mixed. Cover with plastic wrap; chill overnight.

4. Preheat the oven to 350 F. Scoop the chilled dough into 1 1/2 Tbsp.-sized balls. Place on a lined baking sheet, spacing the cookies at least 2 inches apart. Bake for 10-12 minutes, until the edges are beginning to turn golden brown. (The centers will still be soft and may appear slightly underdone).

Addie’s Bread

- 1 Tbsp. active yeast
- 1 1/2 cups warm water
- 1 Tbsp. local honey
- 4 cups flour
- 1 1/2 tsp. Himalayan pink sea salt
- Melted butter, to taste

1. In a mixing bowl, combine the yeast, water and honey, whisking gently; set aside until it gets foamy.

2. In a separate bowl, combine the flour and salt. Slowly add the flour to the yeast mixture, 1 cup at a time, until the proper consistency is achieved. The dough should firm up and not be sticky. Scoop it onto a floured surface; knead for a few minutes.

3. Break it into 3 balls; roll out with your hands into 3 snakes of dough. Braid the dough; cover with a dish towel for about 20 minutes.

4. Preheat the oven to 400 F. Bake 18-20 minutes. Remove from the oven; brush with melted butter; return to the oven until the bread turns golden brown.

Aunt Elaine’s Apple Pie

Little Dennis' Pumpkin
Chocolate Chip Cookies

1. If the apples lack tartness, sprinkle them with lemon juice.
2. Combine the dry ingredients; mix with the apples until all are coated.
3. Line a 9-inch pie pan with 1 piecrust. Add the apples; dot with butter. Adjust the top crust, cutting slits for steam to escape. Trim and crimp the edges. Brush with half-and-half; sprinkle with turbinado.
4. Bake at 400 F for 50 minutes or until done. (After 30 minutes, check the piecrust; cover edges with tin foil, to prevent from burning.)

Jack's Famous Lemonade

- 2 qts. cold water
6 large Meyer lemons
1/8 cup stevia & erythritol blend sweetener

1. Mix all ingredients; adjust to taste.
2. Serve over ice with sliced lemons!

Lilly Pearl's Chocolate Peanut Butter Cups

- 12 oz. Lily's milk chocolate
1/2 cup creamy peanut butter
3 Tbsp. confectioners' sugar
1 Tbsp. coconut oil

1. Place the chocolate in a large Ziploc bag; seal, removing as much air as possible. Using a rolling pin, pound the chocolate into small pieces. In a small bowl, add half of the pounded chocolate; heat it in the microwave for 1 minute. Stir; heat again. Use a rubber spatula to stir the chocolate until completely smooth. Pipe the chocolate in a spiral into silicone molds of whatever shape you like, working from outside in, to cover the bottom of the liner. Transfer to the freezer for 15 minutes.
2. In another small bowl, add the peanut butter; heat in the microwave about 1 minute. Add the confectioners' sugar and coconut oil; use a clean rubber spatula to stir until well combined. Fill a second Ziploc bag with the peanut butter mixture; pipe over the chilled chocolate layer, as before.
3. In the bowl used to melt the chocolate, add the remaining pounded chocolate; melt as before. Fill a third Ziploc bag with the melted chocolate; pipe it on top of the peanut butter layer in each mold, as before. Chill in the freezer for 30 minutes.

Livi's Cranberry Punch

- 60 oz. organic cranberry juice
(not cocktail)
16 oz. frozen cranberries
1/2 cup sugar
1 Tbsp. Mexican vanilla
1 liter Canada Dry Ginger Ale

1. In a large, clear punch bowl, mix the first 4 ingredients; refrigerate overnight.
2. When ready to serve, mix in the Canada Dry; serve over ice.

Oh, Omaha!

— By Bill Smith

A trip to Omaha, Nebraska, would not be complete without including a bonus trip to the adjacent state of Iowa, and one of the coolest features of the visit would have to be the Bob Kerrey Pedestrian Bridge. Start in the Old Market Entertainment District in Omaha, and you'll be on the bridge after about a 10-minute walk. The bridge is 3,000 feet long, and about halfway across, there is a line that is also halfway across the Missouri River — the border of Iowa. The line is clearly marked, so you can take a selfie of yourself standing in two states at once. The locals call that "Bobbing!"

Downtown Omaha covers a lot of area, but there are many parks with statues, swings, food trucks, restaurants, ice cream parlors, gift shops and activities that the whole family can enjoy. And a river runs through it! Unless you are up for an extended vacation, you'll be hard-pressed to scratch the surface of everything Omaha has to offer, but even on a brief stay, you will find some places that you want to come back to. And on the return trip, you are sure to find something new.

A carriage ride around the historic downtown area, known as the Old Market, is a great place to start. The nightlife is abundant in the area, and restaurants and retail stay open beyond the dinner hour most evenings. Upstream Brewing Company is a wonderful dining experience with a host of drink options including foreign, domestic and local microbrews. They advertise a full menu of New American pub fare, but don't hesitate to order a nice steak or seafood dish. Another interesting dining excursion could include the Mouth of the South. They boast of "Southern Grub," and on the weekends, they feature a prime rib au jus. But the Voodoo Shrimp & Grits is another option if you think you need a taste of Louisiana while you are touring the Midwest. If there is room for dessert after walking a couple of blocks from either restaurant, Ted & Wally's slow churns ice cream with some unique flavor options that are hard to beat.

If you take the whole family, a visit to Omaha's Henry Doorly Zoo and Aquarium will be one that will create a lot of memories and photo opportunities. Locals boast that it is the finest zoo in America, with more than 160 acres of exhibits from around the world. Six acres of exhibits are enclosed for year-round touring.

Omaha's Union Station is a national historic landmark. You will love the ambience of the huge lobby with the ticket booths still in place and the long church pew-type benches. Bronze sculptures of families saying hello and goodbye seem to be alive to greet trains that previously traveled through the station. Stop at the soda fountain and try a cherry phosphate! The station houses The Durham Museum, which features railroad cars and model trains from eras long past. The museum also has scheduled traveling exhibitions, recently featuring the life of celebrity chef Julia Child, and later an exhibit of costumes and scenery from the movie, White Christmas.

There is a lot to do in Omaha, but if you have a little time as you are leaving town, cross the river and visit Ditmars Orchard & Vineyard in Council Bluffs, Iowa. Be there in early fall to pick your own apples right off the trees with numerous varieties to choose from, or you can simply stop in the store and have a big slice of apple pie! NOW
